

THE WEATHER
Forecast for Portsmouth and vicinity — Continued fair tonight and Friday;
moderate west to northwest winds.

THE PORTSMOUTH HERALD

SUN AND TIDE
Sun, rises 6.03
Sun, sets 6.33
Length of Day 11.11
High Tide 8.35 am, 8.13 pm
Moon, rises 4.03 am

VOL. XXX., NO. 136. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1915. Portsmouth Daily Republican Merged with THE HERALD July 1, 1902. PRICE TWO CENTS.

TWO DESTROYERS ARE ORDERED TO NEW YORK

Secretary of the Navy Daniels Wants Vessels to Enforce Strict Neutrality Upon the Part of Shipping There.

(Special to The Herald)
Washington, D. C., March 11.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels today announced that two torpedo boat destroyers, the McDougal and the Drayton, had been ordered to proceed from Cuba to New York. The secretary states that these vessels were going to New York to assist the Dolphin in preserving strict neutrality upon the part of shipping there.

THREE ADMIRALS NAMED ON WEDNESDAY

Rear Admirals, Fletcher, Howard and Cowles, Designated Under New Law.

Washington, March 10.—Under the new law creating the grade of Admiral in the United States navy, President Wilson today designated as Admirals Rear Admirals Fletcher, Howard and Cowles, commanders-in-chief respectively of the Atlantic, Pacific, and Asiatic fleets.

For Real Economy. TANNERS SHOE CO.
Opposite Public Library
SHOES AND RUBBERS
at attractive prices
FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY.
B. L. PIPER, The Shoe Man

Geo. B. French Co. OFFERING EXCEPTIONAL VALUES

BARGAINS IN IMPORTED CHINA
FRUIT DISHES, CHOP PLATES, OLIVE AND BON-BON DISHES, JELLY AND NUT SETS, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.
Odd lots of China Plates, Cups and Saucers, Bon-bon and Other Fancy Dishes, value 10c and 25c; for 5c and 10c

Geo. B. French Co.

REDUCED PRICES ON CUT GLASS IN ASSORTED PATTERNS
Jugs, value $7.50, for $3.50
Compotes, value $3.98, for $1.50
Bowls, value $4.00, for $3.00
A good variety of designs and shapes in Plates, Olive and Bon-bon Dishes at Reduced Prices.
Brass Candlesticks, value $1.50, for 75c
Brass Jardiniere, value $1.25, for 75c
Brass Trays, value $1.50, for 75c
Brass Trays, value $2.00, for $1.25
Carving Sets, value $4.25, for $2.00
Carving Sets, value $2.25, for $1.50

FIRE OF TURKISH FORTS IS WEAKER

Thirty Shore Guns Mounted on Motor Trucks Destroyed in One Day By the Allied Fleet

Turkish Forces in Persia Making Gains Against the British Army

London, March 11.—That the forts in the narrows of the Dardanelles have suffered severely is contained in dispatches from Athens, which report that two battleships ventured right into the narrows during their bombardment to protect vessels engaged in mine sweeping.
These dispatches add that the Kalid Bahr and Erebus batteries have been badly damaged and that the fire of the Turkish forts is becoming weaker.
Some experts believe that all the forts in the narrows should be demolished in two weeks, after which it would be smoother sailing for the ships as most of the guns are concentrated in that part of the straits. Nothing is being left to chance, however.
An Athens dispatch to the Paris Matin says:
"The operations of the allied fleet in the Dardanelles stopped yesterday (Tuesday) morning by unfavorable weather conditions, were resumed vigorously in the afternoon. The warships are reported to have made additional progress in the narrows, silencing Turkish batteries on the heights of Rionini, the fire from which had proved troublesome to the fleet in its maneuvers.
During the bombardment on Monday thirty guns mounted on motor trucks were destroyed by the fire of the warships.

Constantinople, via Berlin and Amsterdam, March 11.—Following up the victory over the British forces in Mesopotamia, the Turkish troops in that region are pursuing the English forces in Persia, was the announcement given out at the official war office here today.
The official statement says that the Ottoman soldiers have already occupied Ahvaz, a town on the Karun river, 90 miles from the Persian Gulf and in the British sphere of influence. Uzi, another town, was also occupied by the Turks.

MORE BATTERIES ARE SILENCED

(Special to The Herald)
London, March 11.—The silencing of more Turkish guns on the Asiatic side of the narrows in the Dardanelles by the Anglo-French fleet is announced in dispatches received here today from Athens. Three strong hidden batteries lying between Kopiez and Charak have been put out of commission by the projectiles from the heavy guns on the warships.

SEWING BEE AND SUPPER

Storer Relief Corps Accomplish Much Work Wednesday Afternoon.

An all day sewing bee was held by Storer Relief Corps in G. A. R. hall on Wednesday, and three quilts were made.
In the evening supper was served to the members of the Corps and a few members of the G. A. R. The menu was as follows:
Escalloped Oysters
Baked Beans Brown Bread
Pickles
Assorted Cake Pie
Tea Coffee
The regular meeting of the Corps

Plan Your Future
Those men who have attained a high degree of financial success have always begun early to plan their future and to save money even when their income was very small.
Are you accumulating a fund for future use? If not, you should open a Savings Account with this bank and get the benefit of complete safety and the semi-annual dividends which we pay on deposits.

PORTSMOUTH SAVINGS BANK
THE OLDEST AND LARGEST BANK IN PORTSMOUTH

was held in the evening following the supper. Two candidates were initiated. Business pertaining to the convention to be held at Concord in April was discussed. It was voted to send flowers to all sick G. A. R. veterans. It was also voted that the Corps attend the birthday reception of Mr. William M. O. Philbrick of Kittery, on Tuesday evening, March 16th.

WORKS CROOKED DEAL WITH FURNITURE

George A. Kemp Victim of Greenland Man Who Sells Him Leased Goods.

The authorities are searching for David A. Malally, late of Greenland, who has disappeared after a furniture trade of two weeks ago which came to light Wednesday.
A month ago George A. Kemp, a furniture dealer of this city, was called to Greenland by Malally to set a price on some furniture Malally wanted to sell. After inspecting the goods Kemp named his figure and two weeks later Malally called again, telling Kemp to take the articles. Kemp brought the furniture to Portsmouth after paying Malally the price agreed on and getting his receipt.
Wednesday afternoon Ralph E. Meras of Exeter, a furniture dealer in that town, called on Mr. Kemp and demanded the goods in question as belonging to him, as Malally still owed $79 on them. In order not to lose the entire amount Mr. Kemp paid the $79 to Meras, who had sold the furniture to Malally on the installment plan.
Deputy Shaw was called in the case and efforts will be made to place Malally under arrest on a charge of disposing of leased goods. No trace of Malally has been found since he and Mr. Kemp concluded their business deal two weeks ago.

BODY FOUND IN SEWER

New York Detectives Working on New Murder Mystery.

New York, March 11.—The ablest detectives of the city were rushed to Brooklyn to solve a new murder mystery that developed from the finding of the head and torso of a man in a sewer at 10th avenue and 45th street, today.
The head of the murder victim which was badly mutilated, was found by city workmen. Police headquarters were immediately notified, and soon several policemen were upon the scene. After a half hour's search of sewers running in four directions, the torso was found.

MRS. COWLES HERE AGAIN
Mrs. Florence J. Cowles and her father, H. J. Jaquith of Brookline, came here today for the third time and held a conference with her attorney Ernest L. Guptill, relative to

E. B. NEWMAN & SON

31-33 Bow Street
PAINTING, DECORATING, SIGN PAINTING, GRAINING, KALSOMINING, PAPER HANGING AND GLAZING

SOLE AGENT FOR MONARCH PAINT
Every Drop 100 Per Cent Pure
In all shades. Gallons, half gallons, quarts and pints.

A Day's Work for a Day's Pay
All work done on honor, both in regard to workmanship and material.

WALL PAPER
One of the largest stocks of Wall-Paper this side of Boston, at reasonable prices.

MOULDINGS, PLATE RAILS, CURTAINS, ETC.

We have some of the best mechanics in the city, in our employ. If you contemplate any work in our line this spring, come in and let us talk it over, or telephone and we will call. Telephones—472M, 1008H.

the divorce proceedings against her husband, Dr. Edward S. Cowles, now pending in the court.

AT MUGRIDGE'S
Six native corn-fed country pigs, just in. They are beauties. Pick out any part: head, feet, fat or lean pork, fresh bacon, ham, or shoulder, leaf lard or nice lean rib roast.

OBSEQUIES
Daniel B. Cook
The funeral of Daniel B. Cook was held from his late home in Kittery today at 2 p. m., Rev. J. H. Macy, officiating. Interment was in the family cemetery under the direction of Undertaker O. W. Ham.

LADIES' AID SERVED SUPPER

The Ladies' Aid of the Pearl Street Free Baptist church, served a very enjoyable supper in the vestry of the church on Wednesday evening from 5:30 to 7 o'clock.
The menu consisted of chicken, salmon, shrimp, and cabbage salads, baked beans, pickles, hot rolls, cake, blueberry custard, lemon, apple, mince and squash pie, tea and coffee.
There was a good attendance and a good sum was realized. The supper was in charge of Mrs. W. T. Lord, Mrs. Marion Dexter, Mrs. Esther Toboy, Mrs. Jellison, Mrs. John Groton, Mrs. James Macfadden, Mrs. B. Elizabeth Chandler, and Mrs. Albert Plummer.

NEW MODELS IN CORSETS

Gossard, Nemo LaGrecque, R & G Rengo Belt, Gloria
$1.00 to $7.50

L. E. STAPLES
MARKET STREET

Special Club Offer

Ten Days $1.00 DOWN $1.00 PER WEEK
STANDARD RANGES of Standard Quality $25.00 to $65.00
Styles and Sizes to Suit All.
Hastings' Kitchen Cabinets—easily the best cabinet made. Let us tell you why.
Don't miss this ten days' offer.

D. H. McINTOSH
Fleet and Congress Streets Portsmouth, N. H.

KITTERY

Breezy Items from the Village
Across the River.

Mrs. Charles Trafton of Love Lane is able to be out again after her recent illness.

The regular meeting of York Rebe-kah Lodge will be held this evening. At this time there will be initiation of several candidates, and all members of the degree staff are requested to be present.

Mrs. Frank E. Donnell of Central street passed Wednesday with relatives in Stratham.

Mrs. Fred Abrams and Mrs. Washington Abrams of the Intervale passed the day with Mrs. J. C. Hoyt of Kittery Point.

A social will be held this evening in the vestry of the First Methodist church, North Kittery.

Mr. Arthur O. Goodwin of Dame street is restricted from his duties in Portsmouth by illness.

Mrs. Fred Libby who has been passing several days with Mrs. Oliver G. Hatch of North Kittery, returned to her home at Kittery Point on Wednesday.

A number of Kittery people are planning to attend the free organ recital at the North Church, Portsmouth, on Friday evening.

Mrs. Stephen Paul of Lynn, arrived in town Wednesday, called here by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Walter Hall of Otis avenue.

Mrs. Burbank of Somerville, and Mrs. Washburn of Melrose have returned to their respective homes after passing a few days with Miss Martha C. Hatch of North Kittery.

Rev. G. B. Cornish of East Elliot was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Hayes of Otis avenue, on Wednesday.

A meeting of St. Aspinquid Telling of Red Men will be held in Grand Old Hall this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones of the Junction have been called to Providence, R. I. by the death of the former's uncle.

The members of the S. V. Club attended the Portsmouth Theatre on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Abrams of Newmarket street and Mrs. F. A. Noel of Newson avenue passed the day with friends on the navy yard.

Mr. William M. C. Philbrick, the venerable Grand Army veteran, will observe another birthday, his 75th on Tuesday, March 16th. From 7 to 10 o'clock Tuesday evening he will receive his friends, including members of the Grand Army, Relief Corps, and Spanish War Veterans, at his home on Simpson street.

While taking wood through a cellar window, on Monday, Mr. M. C. Philbrick received a bad fall. He fell backwards striking his side and receiving a severe shaking up and several bruises.

On Monday evening March 15, will occur the prize speaking contest held under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U. at the Second Christian church at 8 o'clock. The following are the young ladies who will take part: Misses Hazel Irene Kramer, Valentina Tobey, Editha Christina Blomberg, Beatrice Sargent Clark, Victoria May Moody, and Editha Nellier Call. Miss A. Lillian Walker is the efficient instructor and the judges are to be Rev. P. J. Scott of Portsmouth, Rev. M. V. McAllister, and Rev. G. B. Cornish of Elliot. There will also be several piano, violin, and vocal solos.

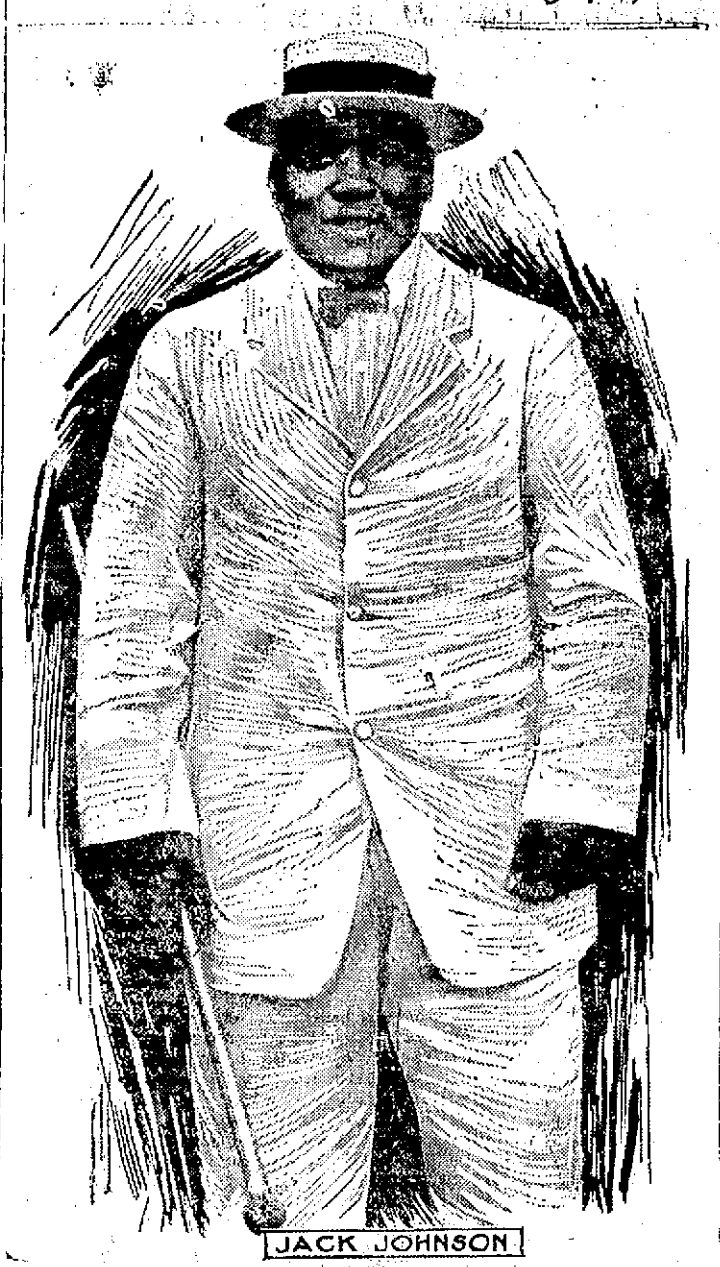

On Wednesday evening Whipple Lodge of Good Templars observed its 48th anniversary. A well attended public meeting was held with several speakers present. Grand Chief Templar Howard C. Woodside gave an excellent address as did Mr. Frank B. Donnell, Mr. James R. Philbrick and Rev. C. J. Yeomans. Mrs. Hinton and Mrs. Albert L. Sprague sang several solos, and a duet was rendered by Mrs. C. J. Yeomans and Mrs. Georgia Seawards. The meeting was closed with the singing of "America" by all.

The Phocias have decided to observe Friday evening, April 16th as guest night.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shipley of Walker street, are visiting relatives of the latter in Dorchester, Mass.

DAILY SPORT LETTER

"I'll get even with that guy Steve Evans if it takes me ten years." The articulator is Dick Carroll, business

Jack Johnson In A Happy
Mood After Winning $5,000

Havana, Cuba, March 11—Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion of the world is not devoting all his time to training for his match with Jess Willard, which takes place on April 3. His spare moments he spends agreeably and sometimes profitably at the race track. The picture shows Jack in happy mood. It was snapped at the track just before Jack had taken $5000 from the bookies. Promoter Jack Curley has announced that the men will meet under the same terms that prevailed when the match was scheduled for Juarez. The fighters will receive their money before entering the ring which will be pitched in the race track. The bout will be put on early in the afternoon to permit racing to follow.

manager of the Brooklyn Federals and the Giant referred to is Steve Evans, outfielder of the Brooklyn Reds, one-time of the St. Louis Cardinals and now as in the past the greatest comedian in baseball.

"What's the latest Evans' stunt?" we inquired.

"Why, that boob had me pinched in Cleveland and I came near passing a night in jail," answered Carroll. "As it was I missed a train and an important business appointment."

"Arrested? On what charge?"

"Stealing my own automobile," answered Carroll.

"Sounds interesting; trot out the details please," we asked.

"Well, Evans and I both live in Cleveland during the year, but my automobile is licensed in New York. The number is New York, 5817D. Some weeks ago I had to go to New York and started for the railroad station in my car with my wife. As we neared the business section I was held up by a traffic blockade. While stalled a policeman came up, squinted at the number of my car, consulted a little notebook he had and placing his hand on my shoulder said:

"I got you at last, hey." "What for?" I asked, as soon as I recovered from my first surprise.

"For stealing that car," was the answer.

"I tried to tell him that I owned the car but he wouldn't listen."

"You can tell that to the desk sergeant," he said climbing aboard.

There being nothing else to do I drove the car and the policeman to the jail.

"This policeman accused me of having a stolen auto in my possession. He is mistaken," I told the sergeant.

"This auto never was stolen; his mine."

"Is that so," said the sergeant with infinite sarcasm.

He pushed the records at me and they showed that a Mr. Carroll of Buffalo, owning car 5817D, had reported that his car was stolen and probably taken to Cleveland.

"Guess I'll have to look you up," said the sergeant, whereupon the policeman grabbed my arm and started to lead me to the pen.

"Just as the doors to the bullpen were being opened I saw one of the police court reporters that I knew passing through the hall. I yelled at him.

"The reporter heard me, turned around and hustled towards us."

"Hey, what's the matter Dick?" he asked. When he called me Dick, the policeman who was leading me into a cell halted. The desk sergeant looked interested.

"Do you know that fellow?" asked the sergeant pointing at me.

"Sure, I used to play ball with him eight or ten years ago. He's Dick Carroll."

"The officer was told to release me. 'How did you happen to get this report of a stolen auto?' I asked the sergeant after the reporter had introduced us and full explanations had been made."

"Fellow phoned in the other night," said the sergeant, consulting the records. Said he was Mr. Carroll from Buffalo and that his automobile had been stolen. He described your car in detail and also gave us the number."

"Well later, I discovered that Mr. Carroll, of Buffalo who did the registering was none other than Steve Evans. And you can take it from me

"TIZ" FOR ACHING,
SORE, TIRED FEET

"TIZ" for tender, puffed-up, burning, calloused feet and corns.

"Ah! Boys, 'TIZ' is the thing!"

People who are forced to stand on their feet all day know what sore, tender, puffed-up, burning feet mean. They use "TIZ," and "TIZ" cures their feet right up. It keeps feet in perfect condition. "TIZ" is the only remedy in the world that draws out all the poisonous excretions which puff up the feet and cause tender, sore, tired, aching feet. It instantly stops the pain in corns, callouses and bunions. It's simply glorious. Ah! how comfortable your feet feel after using "TIZ." You'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't tighten and hurt your feet.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" now from any drugist, department or general store. Just think! a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents.

WHEN HEADACHY
TAKE CASCARETS
FOR THE BOWELS

To-night! Clean your bowels and end headaches, colds, sour stomach.

Get a ten cent box now. You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A ten cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good and never grip or sicken.

now that Mr. Steve Evans is going to suffer for that little joke of his that made me miss a train and a business appointment and nearly landed me in a bull-pen."

KITTERY POINT

Items of Interest from the Harbor Town.

Captain and Mrs. T. Burton Hoyt and daughter Hannah Isabel, with Charles Favour are visiting relatives in Boston.

Leslie Peasley of Kittery recently visited friends in town.

James Trefethen was a business visitor in Portland on Wednesday.

Fred Waldron is able to be out after an illness.

Justin Sawyer has purchased the trotter Gloria, from Portsmouth parties.

Harry Roberts has again taken employment as conductor on the A. S. R. R.

Mrs. Ellen Loud of Haverhill, Mass. is visiting Captain and Mrs. Anthony Rose.

Mrs. Charles Brooks visited friends out of town on Wednesday.

B. L. Tobey has purchased a horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin A. Sawyer and Mrs. Winifred Tobey visited relatives in Kittery and North Kittery on Wednesday afternoon and evening.

The annual donation party will take place this evening at the home of Rev. Winifred T. Coffin.

Fred Abrams of Kittery visited relatives in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Libby attended the funeral of Oliver Hatch in North Kittery on Wednesday.

Mrs. George Payne of York passed Wednesday with Mrs. Thurston Patch.

Herbert Tobey has resumed his duties at Frisbee Brothers store after enjoying a brief vacation.

Edmund Frisbee entertained friends from out of town on Wednesday.

Clark Wyman is painting the house of Mrs. Danice Safford.

Thomas Hillings is confined to his home by illness.

Thurston Patch passed Wednesday in Boston.

The Jolly Twelve Whist Club met at the home of Mrs. George Ginnelson on Wednesday afternoon. Favors were won by Mrs. Perley Tobey, F. A. Noel and Mrs. Henry Blake.

ATLANTIC SHORE RAILWAY.

In Effect Oct. 5, 1914. PORTSMOUTH.

Perry leaves connecting with cars for Elliot, Dover and South Berwick—8.55, 7.55 a. m. and every hour until 9.55 p. m. Then 10.55 p. m.

Saturday—First trip 7.55 a. m. *Runs to Kennerly's Corner only.

For Kittery and Kittery Point—6.25, 6.55 a. m. and every half hour until 10.55 p. m. Sundays—First trip 7.55 a. m.

For York Village, York Harbor and York Beach via P. K. & Y. Division—7.55, 9.55 a. m. and every two hours until 3.55 p. m. Then 4.55 p. m. Sundays—9.55, 11.55 a. m. and every two hours until 3.55 p. m.

For York Village, York Harbor, York Beach, Ogunquit, Wells, Kennebunk, Town House, Kennebunkport, Cape Porpoise, Bliddeford, Sanford and Springvale, via Rosemary—6.55, 8.55 a. m. and every two hours until 4.55 p. m. Then 5.55, 6.55, 7.55, 8.55 and 9.55 p. m. Sundays—7.55, 8.55 a. m. and every two hours until 6.55 p. m. Then 7.55 and 9.55 p. m.

*Returns to Bliddeford only.

BUY YOUR WOOD

of the man who raises it and save money. Office at the corner of State and Pannahall streets, open every afternoon.

JAMES C. PIPER & SON, P. O. Box, 821, Portsmouth.

Our Telephone is 486V. Call us up, and tell us your wood troubles.

MY CLOTHES
WEAR

Because I am careful with the workmanship—paying even more attention to the inside than to the part on show.

My finished garments look right, wear right, and stay right till the fabric is worn out.

I put in the Bartell Patent Pocket in all my coats, because it keeps the fronts from breaking, the pockets from sagging, and the coat from pulling out of shape when the pockets are loaded.

Examine our tailoring work minutely when you drop in to see our spring woolsens.

Chas. J. Wood, 5 Pleasant St.

PORTSMOUTH BRANCH

PLYMOUTH BUSINESS SCHOOL

Day and Evening Sessions.

Times Bldg., Opp. Postoffice.

Tel. Connection.

C. E. WRIGHT, Manager.

Now Prepare to Build

This season will be the best in years to build, for lumber, labor, and, in fact, everything necessary for building are cheaper than ever before for a number of years, and a great deal lower than they can be reasonably expected to remain. In building for a home or for investment you will save money by building now. We carry a complete line of Building Materials, including Spruce Frames, Shingles, Lathes, Interior Finish, Flooring, Cement, Mouldings, Wall-Board, Roofings, Etc.

LITTLEFIELD LUMBER CO

63 GREEN STREET

FIX UP YOUR WINDOW SCREENS NOW

WIRE CLOTH

BLACK, GALVANIZED, BRONZE.

SCREEN PAINT

FOR REFINISHING THE WIRE.

A. P. WENDELL CO.

2 MARKET SQUARE

Coal Bin Empty?

If so let us send you a ton or two of our choice coal for your range or heater. The best ever.

THE CONSOLIDATION COAL CO.

Charles W. Gray, Supt.

Lehigh Coal Automobiles

BOUGHT OF

THE PEOPLE'S COAL CO. Insured

BRINGS SATISFACTION

60 Elwyn Avenue

Tel. 1041W. W. E. HIGGINS, Mgr.

Orders left at Carl & Co's, High St., will receive prompt attention.

Incomparable Results

Are obtained from our Wet Wash Service. If your washing is not done in a satisfactory manner, send it to us. You will be pleased to see the improvement.

HOME WASHING CO.

315 Maplewood Ave. Tel. 462W.

315 Maplewood Ave. Tel. 462W.

Against Fire, Liability, Property Damage Done, and Collision Sustained.

Our rates are the lowest and service the best.

C. E. TRAFTON,

GENERAL INSURANCE AGENT

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

F. S. TOWLE, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon

350 State St., Portsmouth

OFFICE HOURS:

From 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. 1 to 6 p. m.

Fresh Tobacco Never Bites;
Dry, Cut-up Tobacco Does

Real tobacco flavor depends upon the leaf being preserved in its natural state, possible only by pressing the leaves into plug form and keeping it in by covering it with a natural leaf wrapper. The natural flavor and strength of tobacco escape when cut or granulated.

Take a Plug of Sickle that is even thoroughly dried out so that when you whistle it off it crumbles into dust, but it will burn and smoke smooth and cool as it has all of its original tobacco flavor preserved, unevaporated in Plug Form.

Whittling a pipeful is little trouble, amply repaid in both quality and quantity. Try this experiment and judge for yourself.

3 Ounces
10c

Slice it as you use it

HAVE THAT

AUTO
PUT IN ORDER

See that your auto is kept in a properly heated garage this winter and save losses. We make a figure for winter storage that you should not fail to take advantage of.

Perhaps your auto needs some overhauling. Why not have it looked over by our experts? We can save you money this winter. It makes no difference what we make of your auto is.

We Guarantee Perfect Service

The Portsmouth Motor Mart

Flah and Vaughan Streets.

SCOOP, THE CUB REPORTER

A Fine Bowl of Noodle Soup

BY HOP

ADVOCATES PASSAGE OF EDUCATION BILLS

State Supt. H. C. Morisson Addressed Large Gathering at Graffort Club Meeting on Schools of the State

Hon. H. C. Morisson, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, delivered a lecture on the schools of New Hampshire, their aims and problems, before a large gathering at the Association Hall on Wednesday afternoon. It was held under the auspices of the Graffort Club, and there were present besides the members of the club and friends, many of the local teachers and some ten superintendents who had previously held a meeting in this city.

Mr. Morisson took up at first the child situation in this state, as found by the Children's Commission's report and he dwelt on the number of feeble minded found and the condition under which they now live. He thought that a great step in the advancement of the work for caring for the dependent and delinquent children of the state would be the passage of the Child Guardian Commission act which is now before the legislature. He said that in some respects the schools in this state lead the country. For instance, there were more high school scholars in this state than any state in the United States as compared with populations. The state also was second in the number of pupils who enter college. He dwelt upon some of the needs of the teachers and scholars and strongly advocated the compulsory supervision act which is now before the house in the legislature, also the teachers pension act, all bills which if they were enacted into laws would greatly increase the efficiency of the teaching force of the state.

ELEVEN COME ASHORE ON ICE

St. Johns, N. F., March 10.—The wireless operator and ten men of the crew of the sealing steamer Erik, caught in the ice off Bay Bulls, fifteen miles south of here, came ashore over the ice today, having left their ship last night. No later word has been received from the Erik, which has about 120 men on board. Earlier reports were that the Erik had escaped from the ice with three other vessels.

IN THE LEGISLATURE

Concord, March 10.—The senate today passed the following bills:

An act in amendment of chapter 153 Laws of 1909, in relation to highways and bridges on trunk lines.

An act in amendment of chapter 39, Session Laws of 1905, and chapter 35, Session Laws of 1911, relating to state highways.

An act amending section 13, chapter 161 of the Session Laws of 1911, as amended by chapter 145, Session Laws of 1913, relating to the transfer or lease of a public utility.

An act in amendment of subdivision 3 of section 10, chapter 50 of the Public Statutes, relating to the powers of city councils.

An act in amendment of chapter 35 Session Laws of 1899, as amended by chapter 4 of the Laws of 1913, relating to the appointment of conservators.

A joint resolution in favor of repairing Sugarloaf road in the town of Alexandria.

A joint resolution in favor of repairing Tumbledown Dick road in the town of Brookfield.

A joint resolution in favor of the Granite States Deaf Mute Mission.

A joint resolution in favor of industrial institutions for the blind.

A joint resolution in favor of repairing

SAGAMORE COMPANYS' FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY

Sagamore Engine Co., No. 1 observed their fifteenth anniversary on Wednesday evening, with a banquet at U. V. U. Hall. Their own quarters were too small and the larger hall was engaged as the members had as their guests, Chief Engineer Woods, ing the Freedom Bingham and Ossipee Center road in the town of Freedom.

A joint resolution in favor of repairing Robbins Hill road in the town of Chatham.

A joint resolution to provide for the completion of certain highways heretofore designated.

An act in relation to expenditures of state departments.

Many of the senate committees have been in session today for the consideration of bills. Meetings were held as follows:

By the committee on education: On House Bill No. 256 an act to enlarge the powers of school districts; House Joint Resolution No. 13, to provide for co-operative agricultural extension work between the New Hampshire College of Agriculture and the United States department of agriculture; Senate Bills No. 3 and No. 4 to increase the efficiency of the public schools of the state by granting pensions to retired teachers of long service.

By the committee on forestry: On House Bill No. 131, an act in amendment of Sect. 6, Chap. 135, Laws of 1913, relating to the clearing of lumber slash along highways; House Joint Resolution No. 102, to designate the treasurer of the New Hampshire College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts as the custodian of federal funds granted to the state college.

By the committee on judiciary: On House Bill No. 166, creating a board of bank commissioners and abolishing the office of state auditor; House Bill No. 388, an act in amendment of Chap. 306, Laws of 1913; Chap. 34, Laws of 1891; Chap. 309, Laws of 1893, relating to the city of Rochester; House Bill No. 463, establishing a method for determining the equalized valuation per pupil of average attendance for the town of Bascom; House Bill No. 618, to incorporate the Amherst Water company; Senate Bill No. 54, licensing dealers in second hand articles; Senate Bill No. 56, in relation to the salary of the deputy secretary of state; House Bill No. 32, in amendment of Sect. 10, Chap. 78, Laws of 1897, relating to the ballots for use at biennial elections; House Bill No. 262, in amendment of Sect. 12, Chap. 59, of the Public Statutes, in relation to the assessment of taxes; House Bill No. 283, authorizing cities and towns to raise and appropriate money to establish house for dependent children under 14 years of age; House Bill No. 286, authorizing the city of Berlin to appropriate money in aid of the St. Louis hospital of that city; House Bill No. 361, amending Sect. 16 of Chap. 92, of the Public Statutes, relating to the attachment of bulky articles.

By the committee on public health: On House Bill No. 103, in amendment of Sect. 4, Chap. 48, Laws of 1907, entitled an act preventing the manufacture or sale of adulterated or misbranded or poisonous food, drugs or liquors.

By the committee on public improvements: On House Bill No. 211, to establish a state highway department; House Bill No. 328, to provide for investigations of the water powers of the state and to determine the best methods of utilizing the same.

By the committee on railroads: On House Bill No. 43, introduced by Senator Wagner of Manchester, relating to the carrying of passengers by street railways.

A majority of the members of the judiciary committee reported favorably the Chase primary election law bill, which provides that the state

Asst. Chiefs Varrell and Wallace, the officers of the various companies and a good number of guests, including the committee on fire department.

J. W. Hodgdon served a full course turkey supper. Following the supper remarks were made by many, and a musical program enjoyed.

The committee of the various parties may select candidates to be voted for at the primary for governor and congressmen and United States senators. For the offices below that, including councilors and senators, the members of the state committee in the several districts, with the chairman of the town committee of the several towns, may select candidates for councilor and senator.

This bill has the endorsement of the Republican members of the committee. The Democratic members of the committee have presented a minority report, inexpedient to legislate, and this was made a special order for tomorrow at 11.02 a. m.

The bill to abolish the office of attorney general as now existing and establishing a department to be known as the law department, has been reported inexpedient to legislate in its place a bill in a new draft has been presented, with a favorable report from the committee. This bill provides for the appointment of an assistant attorney general, who shall have charge of the legacy tax department. There is a minority report, signed by the Democratic members of the judiciary committee, inexpedient to legislate on this proposition. This bill would make no change in the present attorney general's office, but would legislate the present legacy tax commissioner, William J. Starr, out of office.

The senate today authorized the appropriation of a sum not exceeding $15,000 for the erection of a statue to John Langdon in the state house yard. The statue and the expenditure of the money entailed by its erection is left in the hands of the governor and council.

The committee on revision of the statutes has reported inexpedient to legislate upon the question of extending municipal suffrage to women at all city and town elections of the state to vote for city officers and school committee members. There is a minority report in favor of the bill.

On motion of Representative Wood of Portsmouth it was made a special order for Wednesday, March 17, at 11.01 a. m.

Chief Thomas W. Lane of the Manchester fire department, who is also president of the State Firemen's Association, accompanied by Oscar P. Stone of Manchester, clerk, and John H. Kilbride of Nashua, treasurer, Charles B. Fay of Hillsdale, Fred M. Dodge of Penacook, Patrick J. Kennedy of Exeter and Lester G. Fifield of Ashland, all members of the executive committee of the State Firemen's association, appeared before the senate judiciary committee today in support of house bill No. 68, which was introduced by Representative George B. Miller of Manchester.

This bill is an act in amendment of section 2 of chapter 52, Laws of 1892, entitled, an act in amendment of section 54 of chapter 169 of the public statutes, relating to foreign insurance companies and providing relief for injured or disabled firemen.

The bill provides that $2000 of the amount received as tax upon insurance companies shall annually be set aside by the state treasurer and kept distinct from all other funds, and shall be known as the firemen's relief fund. This fund in the month of May after its receipt shall be paid over upon the order of the governor to the treasurer of the New Hampshire State Firemen's association as trustee and shall be devoted to and paid out for the relief of any fireman injured in the discharge of his duty as fireman, who is a member in good standing in any regularly organized city or town fire company in this state belonging to the association.

HAIR STOPS FALLING, DANDRUFF DISAPPEARS--25 CENT DANDERINE

Save your hair! Make it soft, fluffy, lustrous and beautiful.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable beauty and shimmer of true hair health. Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine from any drug store, or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

and who is himself a member of the association, and for the relief of the dependent parents, widow or children of any such fireman, whose death was occasioned by injuries in the line of his duty as fireman.

COMMISSIONERS CONFERENCE B. AND M. REORGANIZATION

Maine and New Hampshire Officials Meet With Massachusetts Public Service Commission in Boston.

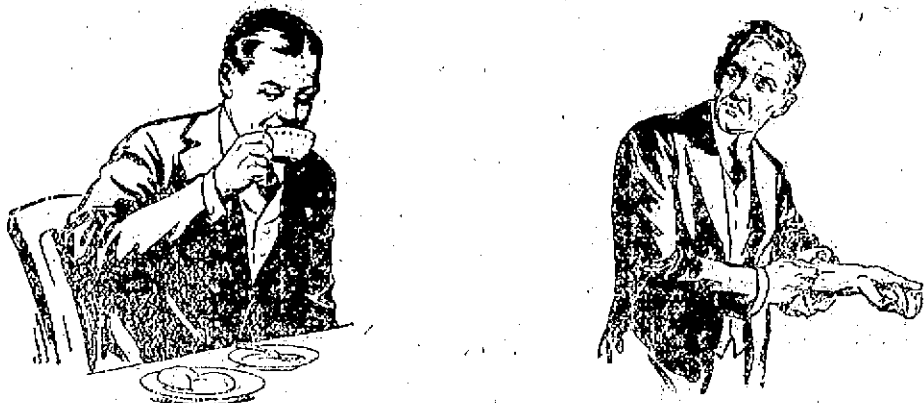

Members of the Public Service Commissions in Maine and New Hampshire arrived in Boston Wednesday morning and shortly before noon went into conference with the Massachusetts Public Service Commission over the proposed legislation to permit the reorganization of the Boston and Maine Railroad Company. All the members from New Hampshire attended. E. C. Niles, T. W. D. Worthen

WOMEN'S CLUBS TO HOLD BRIDGE PARTY

The Women's Club of Durham are arranging for a bridge party to be held at the girls' hall in New Hampshire College, for the benefit of a fund to furnish the girls a rest home at the college. The different women's clubs of this vicinity are expected to take part in the affair.

Can't look well, eat well or feel well with impure blood. Keep the blood pure with Burdock Blood Purifiers. Eat simply, take exercise, keep clean and good health is pretty sure to follow. $1.00 a bottle.

Read the Want Ads.

Either Way--- Drugs Are Harmful!

If a coffee drinker, have you stopped to think that, with every cup of coffee, you are taking from two to three grains of caffeine, a slow, but powerful drug?

According to medical authorities, caffeine is a cause of nervousness, heart trouble, indigestion, constipation and other ailments. It's a cumulative drug, and what's more, a habit-forming drug.

Sometime, when the coffee-drug gets in its tricks, you'll realize the harm it does; but wouldn't it be better to avoid trouble—stop coffee now and use Postum.

It is a pure food-drink, made from selected wheat and a little wholesome molasses, carefully roasted, ground and skillfully blended. This gives it a snappy taste much like that rich, old Java, but Postum is absolutely free from caffeine, or any other harmful ingredient.

Postum comes in two forms:—Postum Cereal—requires boiling—15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble form—no boiling required—made instantly in the cup with hot water—30c and 50c tins.

The difference is only in the form. Both kinds are equally wholesome and delicious and the cost per cup is about the same. Be sure to ask for the kind you want.

"There's a Reason" for POSTUM

—sold by Grocers everywhere.

Abraham Lincoln's advice is:

"Teach economy; that is one of the FIRST and HIGHEST VIRTUES. It begins with SAVING money."

PISCATAQUA SAVINGS BANK

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BLDG.,
PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR ODD JOBS ABOUT THE HOUSE AND GARAGE.

If you want a small quantity of Paint or Varnish

Screws or Brads

Glue or Cement

you will find the proper article and the right price

E. C. MATTHEWS
Hardware and Paint Co.,

Telephone 179. 41 Pleasant St., Portsmouth, N. H.
Opposite Postoffice.

The Portsmouth Herald

Established September 23, 1884.

Published every evening, Sundays and holidays excepted, by The Herald Publishing Company.
 TERMS: $4.00 a year when paid in advance; if sent a month's notice in advance, $1.00 a month; if sent a month's notice in advance, $1.00 a month; if sent a month's notice in advance, $1.00 a month.
 Communications should be addressed to J. W. Hartford, Editor, at the Portsmouth, N. H., post-office, second-class mail matter.
 Advertising rates reasonable and made known upon application.

FOR PORTSMOUTH AND PORTSMOUTH'S INTERESTS

TELEPHONES

Editorial.....28 | Business.....37

Portsmouth, N. H., Thursday, March 11, 1915.

Freedom of the Press.

There will be universal agreement with what Judge O. N. Carter of the Illinois supreme court said about the press the other day in an address at Chicago to lawyers and newspapermen. His subject was "Courts and the Press," and what he said about the latter showed that he has a high appreciation of the press and its inestimable services to the people. "The freedom of the press is part of the flesh and blood of the American people," said Judge Carter. "A pillar of liberty is found in the first amendment to the constitution of the United States, which rules that Congress shall make no law abridging freedom of speech or of the press. 'Light is the best policeman,' and ordinarily an attempt to censor or repress publications produces a state of things sought to be obviated."

All intelligent people know this to be true, and it is because it is true that such protection is thrown about the press by the laws and by public sentiment. While it is possible to abuse the freedom of the press, as it is possible to abuse any good thing, and while there are instances in which this freedom is exercised in ways that give rise to questioning in the minds of some, it still remains true that there must be freedom for the press if there is to be liberty for the people. The two go hand in hand, and any unjust curtailment of the former would inevitably result in the impairment of the latter.

The newspapers are, as Judge Carter said, the country's greatest educational institution. They constitute the universal school. They are read by old and young, the educated and the unschooled, the native born and the foreign born. They enter practically every home in the land every day in the year and exert an influence beyond all computation.

And while the press has so large a share in creating and directing public sentiment, it is also largely governed by public sentiment. The press acts upon the people, and in turn the people act upon the press. For this reason the newspapers will always be just about what the public demands, and where they fall below the proper standard in character the responsibility must be divided about equally between the publishers and the public. The great majority of the newspapers, large and small, seek the higher levels and serve the public truthfully and faithfully, and there is consequently reason to rejoice in the freedom of the press, and in a press which, in the main, does not abuse its high privileges.

Several big collieries in Pennsylvania have been closed and 12,000 men have been thrown out of work, the explanation being that the market is overstocked with coal. When farm produce markets are overstocked people expect prices to come down, and they do come down, but coal operators and manufacturers have ways of their own for relieving glutted markets, and would smile broadly at any suggestion that they should reduce prices and produce more to make up the difference, as many unthinking people think the farmers ought to do.

The president of the Chicago board of trade says the high price of wheat will cause no suffering among the poor, for the reason that when bread becomes too dear they will eat more potatoes and other edibles. But if the consumption of potatoes and other edibles increases will not the prices of those things also advance? The people are not going to starve to death, but there is no dodging the fact that an excessive price of flour means more or less of a hardship to many.

It didn't take New York's anti-alien labor law long to reach the supreme court of the United States, by which its operation was suspended until further notice. The law was working havoc with large public works in New York city by ruling out of the working ranks all who were not citizens, and immediate action was taken to remedy the hasty work of the law makers, if possible. In these days of much law making there is danger of going too fast and too far.

A health authority declares that a great deal of money is wasted on spring tonics and blood purifiers, and that the best tonics and blood purifiers in the world are nutritious food, fresh air, exercise and sunshine. There may be certain virtues in some of the so-called tonics, but without doubt sunshine, exercise and proper food are the best body builders in the world.

Any waste of time by the 63d Congress cannot be attributed to its failure to remain in session. It has been a well nigh continuous performance since April, 1913. The country experienced a sense of relief when the gavels fell, and it is a safe guess that this feeling is shared by the members and President Wilson.

Dispatches from Washington announce that the ship bill died without a struggle. In other words, as obituary writers sometimes put it, "the end came peacefully."

"The cause of education is sacred," says Ex-President Taft. The language of some high school boys would hardly indicate it.

Map Showing Location of Smyrna And Other Points In Asiatic Turkey.

The above map shows Asia Minor and the various points of interest in connection with the campaign against the Dardanelles. Smyrna, whose fort is reported to have been silenced, is a formidable natural fortress, the possession of which would be necessary for the success of land operations against Constantinople through Asia. The Aegean islands are presented also, as well as the ancient city of Broussa, once the capital of Turkey, to which the government may flee if the fleet passes the strait; also the city of Adalia, on the gulf of Adalia, where it is rumored the Italians are going to land an expedition, and the city of Konia, in the interior, where part of the Turkish government may take refuge. Smyrna is connected with Constantinople by a railroad line, which is shown in the map. In the map the letters signify to which country the islands belong. G is for Greece, I for Italy and T for Turkey.

SOUTH AMERICA A VAST COUNTRY

Commercial Opportunities In the Western World Are About to Be Realized.

The war in Europe has again called attention to the fact that America might look to America for her commercial trade. The war has practically closed the ports of Europe, but that does not mean that this country must necessarily fall behind in commercial activities. Commerce with Asia and Australia is still possible and would be quite profitable but those countries are far away. There are vast markets much closer to hand than either.

The opportunities for the building up of a vast trade with the countries of South America is at hand and big commercial corporations should take the present opportunity to begin such work.

There are natural resources in South America are not equalled in value in any other section of the world. It is doubtful if the size of the country is even realized. The country of Brazil alone is 2,000,000 square miles greater than that of the United States. Chile is a country with a wonderful scenery and a wonderful climate. Although narrow east and west it is as long north and south as the distance from New York to San Francisco.

Buenos Ayres is one of the fastest growing cities in the world. At the present rate of increasing population, in 1930, it will be the largest city in the western hemisphere, with New York as the one exception. The area of Peru is as great as that of Spain, Germany, France, and Italy combined. A prominent writer in reference to the Amazon river, has stated: "It is as if you could run an ocean liner from New York to Dodge, Iowa, tie up to a tree, and drive your cattle on board!"

Twelve thousand miles of railroad are needed to carry passengers from Alaska to Patagonia. More than 7000 miles of such road is already built. The remainder is under consideration or is now being built.

The social and commercial intercourse that this country will have with South America will make the "New World" the greatest power the world has yet known.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Fannie M. Newell

Mrs. Fannie M. Newell of this city died at Wolfeboro, Wednesday after a long illness. For 17 years Mrs. Newell was a missionary at Constantinople, Turkey, under the American board. She was born in Oustlee 71 years ago. In 1878 she married Major James H. Newell U. S. A. in this city. Major Newell died in 1881 and in 1882, after the death of her young daughter, Mrs. Newell entered the American Missionary service in Turkey. Mrs. Newell has kept her home on State street in this city with her brother, Richard H. Beacham, and a summer home at Wolfeboro, where her death occurred.

Thomas A. Ward was a visitor at the auto show today.

John C. McDonough has been attending the auto show.

DREW GUN ON SUPERINTENDENT

Three Discharged After Trouble at Stafford County Farm.

Trouble of various kinds at the Stafford county farm has resulted in a strike among the paid employees of that institution. Jailer Wisley and the hired waitress have resigned and have made a protest to the commissioners. According to the jailer prisoners are hired to oversee the farm and a woman who has served her time for being intoxicated in Dover last summer has been assigned the care of the woman's department. On Tuesday she attempted to boss while under the influence of liquor, the inmates, thereby starting a wrangle which finally involved superintendent Willard, the three resigned employees and other subordinate heads. It is further charged that others were intoxicated.

The ex-jailer further stated that six prisoners have escaped from the farm since the first of January, while under the care of hired ex-prisoners; that the fact of their absence in either case, was not reported to him until night, when the others were returned to their cells.

Mr. Willard discharged one of the men only after the latter had pulled a gun and threatened him.

Mr. Willard declined to say which man drew the gun on him, but declared that the man defied him to discharge him.

"When an employee draws a gun on me," said he, "it is about time to send him over the road."

RAILROAD NOTES

Three freight cars loaded with paper crashed into a string of freight cars on the Franklin and Maine branch of the Boston and Maine on Tuesday afternoon when the hand brakes failed to hold on a grade near the Franklin Falls station. An empty car was crushed to kindling wood and two loaded cars were wrecked and their contents scattered along the track. Brakeman Harry Donovan of Concord jumped from the top of a car and his ankle was sprained. A wrecker was summoned from Concord. A passenger train had just passed when the collision occurred.

The railroad stations at Durham and Madbury were broken into on Tuesday night but very little was captured by the burglars. At both stations the same methods are employed, and that the gang was the same that broke into the Greenland station a short time ago is not doubted by the officials. The combinations on the safes in both stations were knocked off in a futile attempt to turn the handle. This was done at Greenland, the robbers being able to open the safe here.

WAGON WRECKED

While passing through Mulberry street this noon a heavy laden milk wagon was wrecked by the crumpling of one of the hind wheels. The driver hunted up another wheel and after some delay continued on his route.

GEORGE B. COX WAS ELECTED PRESIDENT

State Board of Trade Held Annual Meeting at Concord.

The New Hampshire State Board of Trade had its annual meeting in Concord on Wednesday, and re-elected its officers without exception, decided upon the places of its meetings for the year and appropriated the sum of $150 for the purpose of advertising New Hampshire as an attractive place for the summer vacation of persons who would go to Europe if they could get there but who will be kept away by the war.

It was explained that this small sum is only a starter, and it is planned to add to it materially in the advertising campaign that is to be undertaken.

Henry H. Metcalf read the report as secretary; and that of treasurer, Ira F. Harris of Nashua, was presented by L. G. Osmond secretary of the Nashua Board of Trade. Mr. Harris being unable to attend the meeting. The reports showed the state board to be in satisfactory condition, with a comfortable balance in the treasury. The annual spring meeting is to be held in Nashua, the summer meeting in Jaffrey and the fall meeting in Dapham.

This afternoon the meeting was addressed by John N. Cole, former speaker of the House of Representatives, and Edwin C. Bear, speaker of the New Hampshire House.

TO ASK A. S. LINE TO NAME FIGURES

The joint hearing before the commissioners of Strafford County, N. H., and York County, Me., in Dover on Wednesday afternoon, on petitions from citizens of both counties, asking that the interstate toll bridge over the Newichewannick River, known as the Elliot bridge, be made free, was attended by a large gathering. The sentiment was unanimously for freeing the bridge.

Edgar J. Ham, of Rochester, chairman of the Strafford County board, presided.

Mr. Lord, a milk dealer, who has been using the bridge since 1893, gave figures showing the amount of tolls he had paid yearly. These tolls ranged from $12.23 in 1893 to $61.85 in 1914.

The commissioners of the two counties are authorized under laws passed in both states in recent years to take the bridge by right of eminent domain, assess the damages and free it, but may establish tolls during a period of six years to defray the expense.

At a later executive session the joint boards voted to ask the directors of the Atlantic Shore railway, which owns the bridge, to submit figures at which it would dispose of its rights in the highway section of the structure. Chairman Abbott of the York board said that the request would be made upon the railway board without delay.

This action of the boards appears to indicate that the opposition to the plan of freeing the bridge that developed at the South Berwick hearing this morning will not deter them from going ahead with plans for abolishing the tolls. The South Berwick Board of Trade had petitioned against freeing the bridge and some other opposition was shown in that town, but sentiment was divided, Chairman Abbott said.

HE'S EARLY ENOUGH.

York Man Out for Sheriff in 1916.

The following notice has been published by Deputy Sheriff Woodward of York:

"To the Republicans of York County: I hereby announce myself as a candidate for sheriff in 1916. Bradford S. Woodward. York, Me., March 9, 1915.

ANNIVERSARY OF A GREAT BLIZZARD

Friday, March 12, reminds us of the great snow storm that prevailed throughout the northern states on this date in 1888. We had in the vicinity eighteen inches of snow sticky and blinding, with a high wind that formed drifts of six to nine feet, which blocked the railroads and made street travelling either on foot or riding almost an impossibility. One instance is personally well remembered:—The death of the young doctor, Willis W. French occurred in New York city, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. French, were called by his extreme illness from their home in Portsmouth to his bedside in the midst of the storm. After arriving at the city it was with the utmost difficulty that they succeeded in reaching his residence. The storm was a hurricane, the snow in immense drifts, and pedestrians took chances of their lives, while all other means of conveyance were at a standstill. In that city many suffered and some fatally from the effects of the snow.

CURRENT OPINION

Some Day Man Will Be Able to Converse With Beasts.

Some day a man will talk to his dog and his dog will talk to him. So will the man talk to birds of the air. It will be then that all animal and bird life becomes articulate, and a widening of our cosmic horizon now unimagined of will result.

A dream, you say? Cannot the bee teach us a higher communion, the quick, effective elimination of the unfit and shirkers? Cannot the birds tell us their secret of flying? Would we not like to know why the oven bird and castle building ant are so much better engineers than we are? I believe the day will come when they will be able to tell us.

In many respects the gorilla or chimpanzee is far more civilized than man. You never did and never will hear of either abandoning his wife.—By R. L. Garner, Philologist, who studied monkeys in the Congo.

U. S. INQUIRY IS STARTED

President Wilson to Have Personal Hand in Investigation--Germany Probably Will Be Made to Answer For Outrageous Actions.

Washington, March 11.—"A most searching inquiry will be made and what ever action is taken will be based on the results of the inquiry," President Wilson issued that statement today in regard to the sinking of the American ship William P. Frye by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich. The President took the initiative in directing the inquiry and will have a personal hand in the entire investigation.

That the United States will call on Germany for proper amends and reparation for the sinking of the ship is the consensus for official and diplomatic opinions in Washington today. It was admitted that a serious issue with the Kaiser's government has been raised by the action of the famous German sea rover and a grave breach of law was committed in the sinking of the American merchantman.

On February 10, President Wilson sent a note to Germany in part as follows: "If the case should arise of a German vessel of war destroying on the high seas an American vessel it would be difficult for this country to view it in any other light than an indefensible violation of a neutral's rights."

This note to Germany was sent 13 days after the sinking of the Frye, but was merely a reiteration of the then existing international laws and was called forth only by the German threat of her submarine campaign.

Read the Want Ads.

NEW COMPLICATIONS.

(Special to The Herald)

New port News, Va., March 11.—A new sensation developed in connection with the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich today when it became known that her captain, Commander Thierichens, was still holding the papers of the American bark William P. Frye, which was sunk by the German warship on Jan. 27. The papers have been demanded by Collector of the Port Norman R. Hamilton, but thus far the German commander has not yielded.

The German flag drooped over the stern of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich this afternoon in token that her captain had not yet decided to let the ship be interned. In this connection it was stated that although twenty-four hours' notice had been sent to the German commander to leave the harbor,

WALDEN'S MARKET Vaughan St.

Whole Hams.....14c lb.
 Sliced Ham.....20c lb.
 Sliced Steak.....22c lb.
 Top Round.....23c lb.
 Pure Lard.....12c lb.
 Compound Lard.....10c lb.
 Round Steak.....20c lb.
 Salt Pork (5-lb lots).....12c lb.
 Butterine.....16c lb.
 Cream Tartar.....10c pkg.
 Arm & Hammer Soda.....1 lb. pkg. 6c
 Coffee.....17c lb.
 Corned Shoulders.....11c lb.
 Evaporated Apples.....8c pkg.
 Rice.....5 lbs. 25c

We Sell Everything Cheap!

Portsmouth Forum

At Freeman's Hall

Sunday, March 14, '15,

3.30 P. M.

JOHN SPARGO

The Noted Author and Editor, Will Speak on the Subject:

THE TRUE MEANING OF SOCIALISM

Everybody invited to attend and take part in a free discussion of this popular subject.

ADMISSION FREE

TENEMENTS RENTED

RENTS COLLECTED AND
GENERAL CARE TAKEN OF REAL ESTATE.

TOBEY'S
Real Estate Agency

48 Congress Street

CIVIC ASSOCIATION

The Civic Association will hold its regular meeting in the High School Building on Friday afternoon at 3.30. The general subject of the need of the Portsmouth Home will be discussed. By Miss Mulder and Miss Martin. The teachers' standpoint and by some of the members from the mothers' standpoint. Every woman in Portsmouth is welcome to the meetings of the Civic Association. There is no admission and a cordial welcome awaits everyone.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of Daniel B. Cook will be held from his home Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Friends invited.

A large automobile from this city, with some soldiers met with quite a bunch of trouble at New Castle on Tuesday night.

OFFICIAL VISITATION TO ST. JOHN'S LODGE

District Deputy Grand Master Alvan H. Place of Newmarket with District Lecturer Albion B. Hayes of Exeter, made an official visitation to the St. John's Lodge, No. 1, A. M., and A. M., on Wednesday evening.

FIX BAIL AT $2,000 EACH

Two Men Held in Goffs Falls Assault Case Under Heavy Bonds.

Manchester, March 11.—Two men charged with having robbed and made a murderous assault upon Honore Roy on the highway near Goffs Falls at a late hour Monday evening were arraigned in the district court yesterday morning. They are Charles Cockin and Achilles Goumaros.

Through an attorney both men entered a plea of not guilty, waived all preliminary proceedings and were bound over to the superior court in the sum of $2,000 each.

The police department asked that the bond be fixed at $5,000, which was deemed not excessive. The court might as well make the bond a million as $5,000 inasmuch as neither of the accused had a cent or any means of getting bail. So the court finally compromised on the bond above stated. Mr. Roy was in court prepared to appear against the prisoners. He showed the effects of a most terrible beating, his face being discolored, cut and bruised in a frightful manner. He is said to be positive in his identification of the prisoners, the accomplishment of whose arrest in so short a time is no small tribute to the efficiency of the Manchester police.

Roy was attacked shortly after alighting from a car in Goffs Falls and while on his way to his home on the Londonderry road. The men first demanded his money and when he attempted to temporize with them, one of them is charged with having struck him on the back of the head and knocked him down. Then they proceeded to beat him into unconsciousness after which they took from his pockets bills, Mr. Roy says, to the amount of $30. A search of the men after their arrest disclosed $26.10 upon their persons.

PRESENT JUDGE FINE WATCH

Judge McCabe of Dover Given Present by Members of Police Department and Others.

Judge James McCabe of Dover, who will retire as district judge when the new police court system is started, was surprised Wednesday evening at police quarters, being presented a fine gold watch, appropriately inscribed, the gift of the police force, Police Commissioners and probation officer, Miss Eva Arlin, Chief of Police Clark made the presentation speech.

NOTICE.

This is to certify that Brown, the tailor, located at Freeman's Block, has no longer the sole agency for Odams & Co.'s dyeing and cleansing establishment for Portsmouth and vicinity, and he does not accept this work from now on, as this agency has been given over to Mr. Michaelson, 117 Market street, and from March 8 he will gladly accept all work for Odams & Co., who guarantee this work.

ODAMS & CO.

Phone No. 1017W.

NOTICE.

J. Brown, the tailor, has an agency for cleansing and dyeing. Room 1, Freeman's Block, Portsmouth, N. H.

REMOVAL NOTICE

Dr. Samuel T. Ladd has removed his office from Freeman's Block to the offices formerly occupied by the Navy Pay Dept., in the New Hampshire Bank building. Office hours from 11 to 12 a. m.; 2 to 4 p. m., and 7 to 9 p. m.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Miss Harriett Howe will open rooms for dressmaking at her residence 235 Richards avenue, Monday, March 15th. Advance Spring and Summer styles. Orders promptly attended to.

For any pain, burn, scald, or bruise, apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the household remedy. Two sizes, 25c and 50c at all drug stores.

SAVE
$2.50

Great Sale of White Beauty Hoosier Cabinets Ends Saturday

PAY
$1.00
ONLY

Nearly all are sold--End may be tomorrow

The great sale of "WHITE BEAUTY" Hoosier Cabinets will end Saturday at the latest, perhaps tomorrow. If each of the 1000 towns where the Hoosier Company has permitted this sale does as well as we have here, there will be no trouble about the quick doubling of "White Beauty" Sales. There is every indication that the limited number allotted us for this sale will not last till Saturday night. We can obtain no more to sell at the present low price. Most likely you will see these cabinets in the homes of some of your nearest and dearest friends. Why wait until then and regret that you missed the opportunity that is offered to you as freely as to them?

Tomorrow Pay Only $1.00—Try the "White Beauty" in Your Own Kitchen

This chance of a lifetime to secure a real Hoosier Cabinet at a $2.50 reduction from the low cash price, on terms of only $1.00 down and $1.00 weekly, may never occur again. The Hoosier Club plan of payment has proved amazingly popular with the foremost women in this community. Some of them tell us it is the same way that they have bought fine editions of rare books. Yet it costs you nothing extra to enroll in the Hoosier Club if you come tomorrow. No interest. No fees of any kind.

Exclusive Features

See the wonderful shaker flour sifter; the Hoosier accounting system; the cook-book holder; the food guide; the want list; the pencil holder; the money tray; the emergency shelf; and dozens of other labor-saving devices, 17 of which are entirely new.

Decide NOW!
Saturday May Be Too Late

Other women are making up their minds tonight to come tomorrow and select a Hoosier Cabinet while they can save $2.50. It won't take five minutes to decide when you see it.

Come early—for when this lot is gone no power on earth could get you another "White Beauty" at this price.

MARGESON BROTHERS

THE QUALITY STORE

Portsmouth, N. H.

Telephone 570

TO THE PUBLIC: We authorize this sale, limited to "White Beauty" Hoosier cabinets, at $2.50 less than the fixed cash price of these cabinets, this week only. THE HOOSIER MFG. CO., New Castle, Ind.

SHOE NEWS

N. H. BEANE & CO. :: :: :: Portsmouth

OUR OPINION

is the opinion of hundreds and hundreds of parents in this vicinity who buy the "original" Boy Scout Shoe for their boys. They come for them again and again. Something to it, isn't there? Parents, get wise.

For the Younger Set— BROADWALKS

We don't know of any better shoe for the little ones than the "Broadwalk." Best of leather used in the making. Goodyear Welt sewed—no tacks or threads to hurt the feet. Fool-fitting because made on anatomical lasts, and another thing—they're priced right.

One Pair Excelsior Boy Scouts Equals Two of Ordinary Shoes

You will be simply amazed at the length of time these boys' shoes will wear. Yet they are soft and fit like a glove. Material is genuine Elk leather, tanned by our secret process. Soles are specially fastened, can't pull off, and will outwear two pairs of ordinary shoes. No linings. Greatest boys' shoes ever made.

Little Boys' Shoes
9 to 13½, $2.00.

Boys' Shoes 1 to 5½,
$2.50.

Big Boys' and
Men's, Sizes 6 to 10,
$3.00.

Colors—
Olive, Tan and Black.

Other Styles

"Excelsior Boy Scouts" Shoes are also made in "Piker," "Parade," "Campaign," and other styles. In blucher, high-cut, button, etc. Select black, tan and gun-metal calf.

Look for the "Good Luck" Charm Swastika Good Luck Charm (inset) every pair of "Excelsior Boy Scouts" Shoes. Not genuine without the charm. Looks like gold. Will not tarnish. Great for prizes at ball games, etc.

Made by THE EXCELSIOR SHOE CO., Portsmouth, O.

For Sale by

N. H. BEANE & CO.

Spring Cleaning and The Vacuum Cleaner

The only sanitary way to do house cleaning is the Vacuum Cleaner way.

The cost of operating a Frantz Premier is about one cent an hour.

Can you afford to be without one?

Let us demonstrate the cleaner at your house.

The price complete with tools is only $25.00.

Rockingham County Light & Power Company

TELEPHONE 130

29 PLEASANT ST.

SHOOTS WIFE THEN HIMSELF

Manchester Woman Dies on Way to Hospital, Husband
Captured by Police.

John Dudziak a Poland employed as a handler of freight by the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company at Manchester, it is alleged shot his wife Angela, three times with a revolver, death ensuing in a few minutes, and soon after attempted suicide, inflicting a bullet wound in his head.

It is believed he fired two shots at this time, the sounds leading to his arrest.

The couple were married in Poland coming to Manchester six years ago, and there life it is said has been marred by many quarrels. According to a statement made by Dudziak soon after the shooting, he and his wife had been estranged for a year. Four months ago she left their home at 29 Washington street taking her two children and removed to 75 Stark street where she set up housekeeping in two rooms and worked in the Amoskeag Mill.

Last night as she arrived at the entrance to her home and just as she stepped inside the gate, her husband who had been waiting for her, insisted upon accompanying her inside the house. She forbade him to do so, whereupon the police say, he pulled a revolver and fired three shots in rapid succession, each shot taking effect in her body.

On firing the third shot he ran up Stark street, crossed Elm street and made his way to the southeastern section of the city, where he was found and placed under arrest about an hour after the tragedy by Patrolman Martin J. Moriarty. The man was covered with blood, having, as he confessed attempted to kill himself. One of the shots took effect just above the right eye, inflicting a wound that bled profusely, but which is not regarded as serious.

The police sent the department ambulance to remove the woman to a hospital. She was unconscious when found and died on the way to the hospital.

Medical Referee Maurice Watson took charge of the body and will conduct an autopsy today.

The children of the couple are Mary, aged 8, and Margaret, aged 5 years.

PORTSMOUTH THEATRE PROGRAMME

ORIGINAL VAUDEVILLE and PHOTO-PLAY HOUSE

Wednesday and Thursday

"The Van Thornton's Diamonds"—Selig Drama, 2 parts.

A most interesting and absorbing story of an innocent girl who, through poverty, was inveigled into marriage with a clever society crook, who expected to make her an accomplice. An element of mystery adds an attractiveness to this thrilling picture-play. An all star cast.

ACT—Laura and Billy Dwyer—Scenic and Pantomime and Dancing.

"The Happy Little Home"

"A Spiritual Elopement"

Two funny Edison comedies on the same reel.

"The Boob and the Magician"—Biograph Comedy.

The magician astonishes his audience with his feats. He calls for an assistant and gets him but he puts the "Ky-Boosh" on everything.

ACT—Four Readings—Sensational Juggling of Human Beings.

"From a Life of Crime"—Edison

An underworld melodrama. An orphan girl is obliged to become a thief. A very touching story.

"Girl Detective" Monday.

HAND SEVERED BY WOOD SAW

E. K. Clark Seriously Injured at Strafford Blue Hills
Wednesday.

E. Kimball Clark of Strafford, Blue Hills met with a serious accident on Wednesday while operating a gasoline engine with which he was sawing and as soon as Mr. Clark stepped on side he slipped and fell to the ground, in trying to save himself from falling by extending his arms his left arm struck the saw and his hand was cut off just above the wrist.

CHRIST CHURCH

There will be the usual Lenten services this evening at 7.30 o'clock. Sermon by Rev. A. M. Dunston of Tilton, N. H.

Usual Brotherhood meeting after the service.

FOR SALE—Single Cochin B. I. Red eggs for hatching from good utility stock, 50c per setting of 13. R. E. Wood. The saw was running rapidly Staples, South Elliot, Me. No 3w mts.

Plenty of Bargains Still Here

IT WILL PAY YOU TO BUY NOW AND SAVE MONEY

SUITS, COATS, SKIRTS, WAISTS, FURS,
SILK AND SERGE DRESSES

Most are of the New Spring Styles, at less than the cost of the materials.

Every garment in the store must be sold out during this week's selling to make room for the carpenters and painters.

Come early while the pickings are good.

SIEGEL'S STORE, 57 MARKET ST.

The Store of Quality for the People.

IGHTY FLEET STILL WORKING ON DARDANELLES FORTS

Gaining but Little Headway Until Fortifications at Nagara are Reduced--May Try German Submarine Crew as Pirates-- Another American Ship Seized

London, March 10.—Six British warships, headed by the superdreadnought Queen Elizabeth, are concentrating their fire upon the batteries of Port Unruh, overlooking the Dardanelles straits, according to Athens dispatches today. A determined effort is being made to silence the guns of Unruh, which have so far swept the strait for a distance of several miles and blocked the advance of allied ships.

The Russian Black sea fleet, reported today, is steaming slowly westward along the coast of Asia Minor toward the Bosporus. It is sunk several small Turkish steamships and is now reported to be within 100 miles from Constantinople.

New Dreadnought with Fleet
The newest monster of the seas, the superdreadnought Queen Elizabeth, is believed to have joined the allied fleet in the Dardanelles. Admiralty officials virtually admitted that another big battleship of the Queen Elizabeth type is in action. The battleship was laid down five days after the Queen Elizabeth, was launched Nov. 28, 1912, and is now reported to be battering the Turkish forts with her 15-inch guns.

Nearly 30 French and English warships, the admiralty admitted today, are shelling the Ottoman defenses. In addition to these a dozen other powerful craft are unofficially reported to be in action. The aggregate tonnage of the Anglo-French naval forces at the Dardanelles is nearly six times that of the entire Spanish Armada of ancient days.

The admiralty professed to have no word today regarding the operations at Smyrna, where Rear Admiral D'Almeida's squadron is reducing the Turkish batteries. No reports were made public concerning the operations of the French fleet shelling the Gallipoli peninsula.

It was officially denied today that the Queen Elizabeth had suffered any serious damage in the Dardanelles fighting. In meeting the Turkish claim the admiralty merely referred inquiries to the official statement from the French ministry of marine last night. The French statement said that the Queen Elizabeth is inside the strait, bombarding the defenses of the Narrows.

Turk Shell Falls at Admiralty's Feet
Paris, March 10.—A piece of a Turkish shell fell yesterday at the feet of Rear Admiral Guepratte, commander of the French division operating with the allied fleet in the Dardanelles, as he was directing the operations of the battleship Suffren, which had executed a daring maneuver by penetrating the extreme flank of the mine fields. Several shells are reported to have struck the warship, but the correspondent makes no mention of her having been damaged.

After yesterday's operations, the admiral says, the crew of the battleship Guepratte was warmly praised by Vice Admiral Carden, the British commander, for the assistance lent in the reduction of the Dardanelles redoubt. Powerful Turkish batteries were silenced by the Guepratte, which was herself struck by two six-inch shells, although the damage done is said to have been insignificant.

Operations of the French warships have been delayed for a few hours by the necessity of taking aboard coal and ammunition.

French Gain More Ground in the Champagne
Paris, via London, March 10.—The report from the war office this afternoon says:

"The importance of our progress yesterday in Champagne is commensurate with the German counter attack made on ridge 196 was vigorously repulsed, and we gained a little ground along the road from Perthes to Tachure. On the hill northeast of Mesnil our infantry, after having carried the German works mentioned in the last communication, reached a hill beyond."

"In the Argonne, at Montaine-Audame, we demolished a blockhouse and pushed our trenches 80 metres forward. Between Four de Paris and Bollente the enemy took from us trenches we had captured in the morning. However, a fresh attack gave us possession of them once more. The enemy then attacked again and, according to the latest information, the fighting continues."

OUR SAMPLE BOOKS —OF— WALL PAPERS

are always ready for your inspection either at our store or your residence; but you can always get a better idea of the effect of a paper by viewing it in the piece. So if possible call at our place of business; where every courtesy will be shown and prices and estimates cheerfully given.

We carry a full line of PAINTS, BRUSHES, LEAD, OIL, CURTAINS AND MOULDINGS.
HOUSE AND SIGN PAINTING.
Agent for U. S. Marine Paints.
HIRE NOW THE UNEMPLOYED
F. A. GRAY & CO.,
30-32 Daniel Street.

GET THE HABIT DOWNING'S SEA GRILL

At Your Service
THE HOME OF HOME COOKING
You hear the people talking about Downing's Regular 35c dinner.
The proof of the pudding is the eating thereof.
Home-made Doughnuts and Pies to Travel.

Get The Full
VALUE OF YOUR SHOES
BY HAVING THEM RE-PAIRED BY
CHARLES W. GREENE
270 State St.
Opposite the Post Office.

Skates Sharpened While You Wait
MARKET ST. REPAIR SHOP
C. R. Pearson, Manager
FINE MACHINE WORK
OVER BRAGDON'S STORE. PHONE - BRAGDON'S.

serious damage in the Dardanelles fighting. In meeting the Turkish claim the admiralty merely referred inquiries to the official statement from the French ministry of marine last night. The French statement said that the Queen Elizabeth is inside the strait, bombarding the defenses of the Narrows.

Turk Shell Falls at Admiralty's Feet
Paris, March 10.—A piece of a Turkish shell fell yesterday at the feet of Rear Admiral Guepratte, commander of the French division operating with the allied fleet in the Dardanelles, as he was directing the operations of the battleship Suffren, which had executed a daring maneuver by penetrating the extreme flank of the mine fields. Several shells are reported to have struck the warship, but the correspondent makes no mention of her having been damaged.

After yesterday's operations, the admiral says, the crew of the battleship Guepratte was warmly praised by Vice Admiral Carden, the British commander, for the assistance lent in the reduction of the Dardanelles redoubt. Powerful Turkish batteries were silenced by the Guepratte, which was herself struck by two six-inch shells, although the damage done is said to have been insignificant.

Operations of the French warships have been delayed for a few hours by the necessity of taking aboard coal and ammunition.

French Gain More Ground in the Champagne
Paris, via London, March 10.—The report from the war office this afternoon says:

"The importance of our progress yesterday in Champagne is commensurate with the German counter attack made on ridge 196 was vigorously repulsed, and we gained a little ground along the road from Perthes to Tachure. On the hill northeast of Mesnil our infantry, after having carried the German works mentioned in the last communication, reached a hill beyond."

"In the Argonne, at Montaine-Audame, we demolished a blockhouse and pushed our trenches 80 metres forward. Between Four de Paris and Bollente the enemy took from us trenches we had captured in the morning. However, a fresh attack gave us possession of them once more. The enemy then attacked again and, according to the latest information, the fighting continues."

Galveston, March 10.—The American bark Pass of Balmaha, from New York to Bremen, carrying 6000 bales of cotton, has been seized by a British cruiser and taken to Kirkwall, Orkney, according to private reports here to B. E. Harris, member of a cotton concern which chartered the bark. Mr. Harris said the bark lately had been changed from British to American registry and sailed from New York, Jan. 23. The Pass of Balmaha is a vessel of 1458 tons displacement.

Owners May Protest Seizure at Washington
New York, March 10.—Dispatches from Galveston announcing that the American bark Pass of Balmaha has been seized by a British cruiser and taken to Kirkwall was the first news received here of the fate of that vessel. Fear that she had been held up already had arisen, however, when it was learned that the sailing ship Vincent, which left here for Bremen a short time before the Pass of Balmaha had arrived at her destination. Both vessels were loaded with cotton and sailed about 13 hours apart.

A member of the cotton concern which chartered the Pass of Balmaha said today:

"If the vessel is released within a reasonable time we will be satisfied. If not, we shall of course, take the matter up with the state department at Washington."

Dacia Protest is Entered at Paris
Paris, March 10.—H. M. Breitung of New York, owner of the American steamer Dacia, has entered a protest against the seizure of his vessel by the French maritime authorities. He has engaged Paul Gouvre, president of the French Association of Maritime Law, to defend his interests.

Demand Crew be Tried as Pirates
London, March 10.—Incensed at the seizure of three more British merchant steamers, with the loss of 37 lives, the English press today demanded that the government now carry off its threat and try the crew of the German submarine U-8 as pirates.

Twenty-nine officers and men of the U-8 were made prisoners when the submarine was sent to the bottom in the English channel. Dispatches from Amsterdam today carried a claim from Berlin that the U-8 alone had sunk five British steamers in the channel before she was destroyed.

Official announcement early today of the sinking of the steamers Taiguan, Blackwood and Princess Victoria by torpedoes brought the total number of German "war zone" victims to 14. In addition several other steamers were torpedoed before Germany formally put into effect her submarine "blockade."

DESPERATE BATTLE IN NORTH
Germans and Russians Stubbornly
Contest Ground on Whole Front Between the Niemen and the Vistula.
Petrograd, March 10.—The following official communication was issued last night:

"On the whole front between the Niemen and the Vistula the fighting yesterday was of an extremely desperate character. Our cavalry captured part of a supply column which was falling back on the village of Seny."

"In the region of Augustow, a battle has begun two versts (about a mile and a half) from the station of Augustow."

"The artillery of Ossowetz is successfully engaging the enemy's siege batteries."

"An attack by the Germans on the Kaino and Lomza roads was repulsed."

"To the south of Khorjole, the enemy is bringing great forces into the fighting line. The Germans who took the offensive south of Orbin were repulsed with heavy losses."

"One of Germany's Costliest Failures
Telegraphing from Petrograd, the Times' correspondent, dealing with the reported withdrawal of the German forces which have been attempting to reduce the Ossowetz fortress, says:

"This retirement of the last of Field Marshal von Hindenburg's armies in Northern Poland marks the failure of his whole effort in East Prussia. The German raid will doubtless be judged by impartial observers as one of the costliest of the German failures on the eastern front and as confirming the impression long formed here that the Germans, despairing of success on the western front, had staked everything on a chance of victory over the Russians, if not by an invasion of Russia then at least by barring a Russian advance toward Berlin."

HEARD IN PORTSMOUTH.
How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Pills Corrected.

All over Portsmouth you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Portsmouth people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townsmen. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. If your back aches, if the kidneys act too frequently, or passages are painful, scanty and off color, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has helped so many of your friends and neighbors. Follow this Portsmouth citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

James W. McMullen, grocer, 43 Bennett St., Portsmouth, says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a good kidney remedy as they have been used in my family for pain and lameness across the joints and trouble with the kidney secretions and they have always lived up to representations. I have no hesitation in giving Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McMullen had. Porter-McBurn Co., Proprs., Buffalo, N. Y.

HEARD IN PORTSMOUTH.
How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Pills Corrected.

All over Portsmouth you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Portsmouth people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townsmen. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. If your back aches, if the kidneys act too frequently, or passages are painful, scanty and off color, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has helped so many of your friends and neighbors. Follow this Portsmouth citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

James W. McMullen, grocer, 43 Bennett St., Portsmouth, says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a good kidney remedy as they have been used in my family for pain and lameness across the joints and trouble with the kidney secretions and they have always lived up to representations. I have no hesitation in giving Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McMullen had. Porter-McBurn Co., Proprs., Buffalo, N. Y.

HEARD IN PORTSMOUTH.
How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Pills Corrected.

All over Portsmouth you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Portsmouth people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townsmen. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. If your back aches, if the kidneys act too frequently, or passages are painful, scanty and off color, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has helped so many of your friends and neighbors. Follow this Portsmouth citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

James W. McMullen, grocer, 43 Bennett St., Portsmouth, says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a good kidney remedy as they have been used in my family for pain and lameness across the joints and trouble with the kidney secretions and they have always lived up to representations. I have no hesitation in giving Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McMullen had. Porter-McBurn Co., Proprs., Buffalo, N. Y.

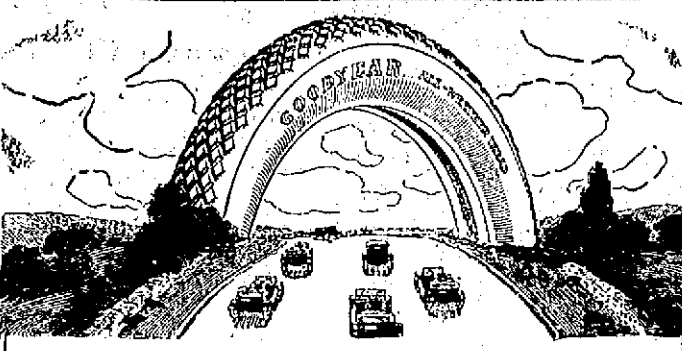

HEARD IN PORTSMOUTH.
How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Pills Corrected.

All over Portsmouth you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Portsmouth people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townsmen. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. If your back aches, if the kidneys act too frequently, or passages are painful, scanty and off color, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has helped so many of your friends and neighbors. Follow this Portsmouth citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

James W. McMullen, grocer, 43 Bennett St., Portsmouth, says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a good kidney remedy as they have been used in my family for pain and lameness across the joints and trouble with the kidney secretions and they have always lived up to representations. I have no hesitation in giving Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McMullen had. Porter-McBurn Co., Proprs., Buffalo, N. Y.

HEARD IN PORTSMOUTH.
How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Pills Corrected.

The Broad Way Leads to Goodyear Tires

Try it a little while. It has carried some 400,000 motorists to the haven of content. It is traveled by more users than has any other tire. That has been so for years.

We can't win you to Fortified Tires by asking you to try them. The tires themselves must win you. But our plea is that you should try the tires that countless men found best. There must be a reason as you know, why Goodyears dominate like this. Last year men bought about one Goodyear for every car in use.

Price Reduction
On February 1st we made another big price reduction. That makes three reductions in two years, totaling 48 per cent.

Men Like You
This Goodyear army is composed of men like you. They want quality, safety, endurance. They want trouble-saving and low cost per mile.

Goodyears best meet these wants. They met them because they are Fortified Tires.

GOODYEAR SERVICE STATIONS—Tires in Stock
Portsmouth Motor Mart, 85 Fleet St. Hiram E. Weber.
NEARBY TOWNS
Harrison's Garage, Hampton
Arthur L. Turcotte, Newmarket people and witnessing a number of episodes of his journey at Tiflis, and he came to the conclusion that there are few men who like Nicholas II are endowed with the gift of understanding themselves to persons of all classes, and completely winning the hearts of those with whom they come in contact.

"It appears," Miss Rochet said, "that the Czar's visit to the far away province of his vast empire was first scheduled to take place some ten years ago, but was postponed over and over again chiefly on account of the fact that the Czar's aides and those charged with protecting his life invariably refused to face the responsibility of a long trip throughout the still wild and uncivilized country."

"Caucasia love for the independence and liberty, the primitive conception of the people of the relations that should pass between the subject and the sovereign together with the more manners and free speech for which even the Georgian nobility is famous, played an important part in the decision which the court reached every time the question of the Czar's visit came up for discussion."

"The Petrograd officials believed even an attempt on the sovereign's life could be easily prevented through the adoption of strict police measures, yet the way in which he would be received and the liberties which the Caucasians would take with him were sure to make an unfavorable impression on Nicholas II."

"But at last the visit has taken place and what is more incredible, the Czar has enjoyed himself as never before in his life. He arrived one morning dressed in true Georgian fashion black tunic held at the hip by a glittering cartridge belt, high boots, turban, and a Georgian rough cape that was thrown loosely over his shoulders. The crowd received him as one of their own and soon made him realize that he was among devoted and loving friends who would do anything to make his stay there as pleasant as possible."

While the members of his suite almost shook with fear the Czar thought the love of the people for him was sincere and for three days walked through the streets of the city insisting, in opposition to the police measures taken to protect his life, that the windows and doors of the houses be opened and the people allowed to see him.

"The grave gentlemen of his party were shocked, but Nicholas II seemed to pay very little attention to their advice. In the midst of the merry, easy ways of the population, the only one perhaps which the horrors of the war has failed to rob of its warm, good humor, the Czar forgot the cares and worries with which his daily life is beset and for the first time in many years, his lips opened to a hearty laugh and at the sight of the devoted homage of his simple subjects, the deep furrows on his brow smoothed down."

"The Czar's experience with a number of inquisitive ladies of the American press, who accompanied him, remains perhaps the most characteristic feature of his visit to Tiflis. At one of the many receptions the ladies whose acquaintance with the court protocol was some what fled at the Czar a number of questions, many of which like for instance, those about when the war would end and what part of Turkey Russia would seize, nobody could have answered and least of all the Czar himself. Yet the Czar replied promptly and without hesitation to everyone of them and his answers though avasive and vague in the extreme never failed to please a questioner.

"To a Prince who had come down from his mountain castle to bring him a present of the products of his state and who invited him to come with his wife and children the Czar promptly replied that he would look him up in his castle. The Czar fully entered into the spirit of the people, and in one of the schools he visited he helped the boys to remove the silver bands from his hands so that they could keep them as a souvenir of his visit. In another school a little American girl marched up to him and in the presence of her trembling teachers, fell at his knees saying:

"My father died while fighting for thee, and you must allow me to study here without paying."

The Czar took her up in his arms and said:

"Yes—and as thou speakest Russian so well I shall begin by asking thy teacher not to punish thee for what thou hast done."

The same attitude of informal cordiality the Czar preserved even when in contact with the Kinties, the street merchant peddlers, considered the lowest element of the city whose witty caustic speech and loose manners are known to every visitor in Tiflis.

When the Czar arrived the Kinties held a meeting and decided to send a delegation to greet the ruler. The audience was immediately granted and here is the way the spokesman addressed the Czar of all the Russias:

"Your Majesty the word of the Kinties is the word of the plain people. Our country is in danger but we Georgians are faithful to you and only your laws with a single exception are now and then we drink a bottle of wine notwithstanding your ukase prohibiting the sale of alcoholic drink. Now we have the war but you must not fear the Turks, as we are here to protect you."

Those who were present relate that the Czar laughed himself almost to tears.

FOR 1915
We can sell you bicycle tires and sundries as low as the lowest. The Iver Johnson bicycle for $27.50 to $50, the wheel that all others try to imitate. Tires from $1.50 to $5.00 each. We are ready for bicycle repairing in all branches; we make a specialty of bicycle repairing—no motorcycle repairing. Baby carriage tires a specialty. W. F. Woods.

Don't use harsh physics. The reaction weakens the bowels, leads to chronic constipation. Get Doan's Kidney Pills. They operate easily. 25c at all stores.

S. B. Leland of Montpellier was here on Wednesday.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

perhaps the most characteristic feature of his visit to Tiflis. At one of the many receptions the ladies whose acquaintance with the court protocol was some what fled at the Czar a number of questions, many of which like for instance, those about when the war would end and what part of Turkey Russia would seize, nobody could have answered and least of all the Czar himself. Yet the Czar replied promptly and without hesitation to everyone of them and his answers though avasive and vague in the extreme never failed to please a questioner.

"To a Prince who had come down from his mountain castle to bring him a present of the products of his state and who invited him to come with his wife and children the Czar promptly replied that he would look him up in his castle. The Czar fully entered into the spirit of the people, and in one of the schools he visited he helped the boys to remove the silver bands from his hands so that they could keep them as a souvenir of his visit. In another school a little American girl marched up to him and in the presence of her trembling teachers, fell at his knees saying:

"My father died while fighting for thee, and you must allow me to study here without paying."

The Czar took her up in his arms and said:

"Yes—and as thou speakest Russian so well I shall begin by asking thy teacher not to punish thee for what thou hast done."

The same attitude of informal cordiality the Czar preserved even when in contact with the Kinties, the street merchant peddlers, considered the lowest element of the city whose witty caustic speech and loose manners are known to every visitor in Tiflis.

When the Czar arrived the Kinties held a meeting and decided to send a delegation to greet the ruler. The audience was immediately granted and here is the way the spokesman addressed the Czar of all the Russias:

"Your Majesty the word of the Kinties is the word of the plain people. Our country is in danger but we Georgians are faithful to you and only your laws with a single exception are now and then we drink a bottle of wine notwithstanding your ukase prohibiting the sale of alcoholic drink. Now we have the war but you must not fear the Turks, as we are here to protect you."

Those who were present relate that the Czar laughed himself almost to tears.

FOR 1915
We can sell you bicycle tires and sundries as low as the lowest. The Iver Johnson bicycle for $27.50 to $50, the wheel that all others try to imitate. Tires from $1.50 to $5.00 each. We are ready for bicycle repairing in all branches; we make a specialty of bicycle repairing—no motorcycle repairing. Baby carriage tires a specialty. W. F. Woods.

Don't use harsh physics. The reaction weakens the bowels, leads to chronic constipation. Get Doan's Kidney Pills. They operate easily. 25c at all stores.

S. B. Leland of Montpellier was here on Wednesday.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

W. F. Woods.

Phone No. 373 NOW and have our wagon call for those aprons, towels, etc., that are soiled and leave in their stead clean, fresh articles.

Try our Towel and Apron Delivery Service. We collect every Friday and know one trial of this new branch of our service will prove it's just what you've been looking for.

Towels and Aprons, 5c each—6 for 25c.

NEW METHOD LAUNDRY
Water Street.

61 FLOOR VARNISH
Test it with your feet.
It's permanent, water-proof, and water-proof. The wood may dent, but the varnish won't crack. Easy to apply. *Sold by furniture finish. Try some.

W. S. JACKSON'S
111 MARKET ST.

R. J. BALLARD
GAS AND ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR

Estimate furnished on all Kinds of Gas and Electric Work.

FIXTURES
GAS SUPPLIES
GAS ENGINES
GASOLINE ENGINES
PRIVATE PLANTS
ELECTRIC SUPPLIES
MOTORS
TELEPHONES
ELECTRO PLATING
FLEXLUME SIGNS

Wagner Power Apparatus
Repairing Promptly Attended To.
47 Congress St., Portsmouth
(Up One Flight)

Joseph Sacco
252-MARKET STREET
Is the ONLY distributor of t Celebrated

Hanover Rye Whiske.
For this city.
We also carry the

James A. Pepper Whiske
A brand that is endorsed by 405 Physicians and has stood the test of time.

Foreign and Domestic Wines and Liquors
All the Portsmouth Beers and Ales
Case lots as low as any dealer in New England. Family trade solicited. Goods shipped to any point within the law. Mail orders promptly filled. Tel. 585-W.

7-20-4
10c CIGAR
Increased sales for over forty years tells its own story. Largest selling brand of 10c Cigars in the world.

FACTORY:
MANCHESTER, N. H.

Market Street Repair Shop
C. R. PEARSON, Manager
Sewing Machines, Cash Registers and Typewriters Repaired.
Lock and Gunsmith.
46 Market St.
Over Bragdon's Shoe Store, Portsmouth

Omega Oil
for Oil
Cold in Head
and Catarrh

For a teaspoonful of Omega Oil in a cup of boiling water, then inhale the steam which goes through the passages of the nose and throat. This simple treatment usually gives quick relief.

Omega Oil
for Oil
Cold in Head
and Catarrh

Omega Oil
for Oil
Cold in Head
and Catarrh

Omega Oil
for Oil
Cold in Head
and Catarrh

Omega Oil
for Oil
Cold in Head
and Catarrh

Omega Oil
for Oil
Cold in Head
and Catarrh

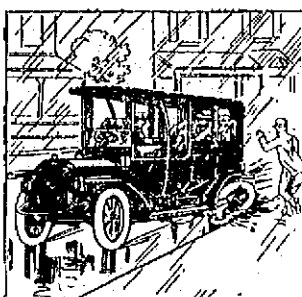

Omega Oil
for Oil
Cold in Head
and Catarrh

Omega Oil
for Oil
Cold in Head
and Catarrh

Omega Oil
for Oil
Cold in Head
and Catarrh

Omega Oil
for Oil
Cold in Head
and Catarrh

Don't risk your life and car—the lives of others in your care and of bystanders—by driving without skid chains—for your car will skid in wet weather without them.

We have a stock comprising almost all sizes in the best of makes—let us supply you.

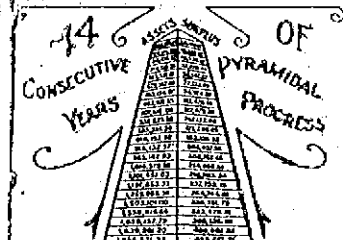

A full line of other automobile supplies, accessories, etc., always on hand.

Sinclair Garage

A. W. HORTON, Proprietor.

Tel. 232, 283.

THE COMPANY WITH THE PYRAMID

NEW HAMPSHIRE

FIRE INSURANCE CO.

100,000	1,000,000
200,000	2,000,000
300,000	3,000,000
400,000	4,000,000
500,000	5,000,000
600,000	6,000,000
700,000	7,000,000
800,000	8,000,000
900,000	9,000,000
1,000,000	10,000,000
1,100,000	11,000,000
1,200,000	12,000,000
1,300,000	13,000,000
1,400,000	14,000,000
1,500,000	15,000,000
1,600,000	16,000,000
1,700,000	17,000,000
1,800,000	18,000,000
1,900,000	19,000,000
2,000,000	20,000,000

TOTAL LIABILITIES $2,797,093.22

POLICY HOLDERS SURPLUS $3,453,437.67

Granite State

Fire Insurance

Company

Of Portsmouth, N. H.

Paid Up Capital

$200,000

OFFICERS—Calvin Page, Pres.; Joseph O. Hobbs, Vice Pres.; Alfred F. Howard, Sec.; John W. Emery, Asst. Sec.

For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Colic, Diarrhea on sugar children love to take it. Used externally it quickly relieves Swollen Throats, Cuts, Bruises and Blisters.

25 and 50 cents at dealers.

J. B. JOHNSON & CO., Inc., Boston, Mass.

Parsons' Pills

Make the Liver Active

BERRY

If you want the Monument that is of the highest grade marble or granite, with the design, lettering, etc., properly carved by expert workmen, that will stand long the action of the elements—place your order with this local concern, thereby eliminating all chance of inferiority in stone or workmanship. Lowest figures—and warranted work.

Fred C. Smalley

19 Water Street

CEMETERY LOTS

CARED FOR and TURFING DONE

With increased facilities the subscribers again are prepared to take charge of and keep in order such lots in any of the cemeteries of the city as may be entrusted to their care. They will also give careful attention to the leveling and grading of them, also to the cleaning of monuments and head stones, and the removal of bodies. In addition to working at the cemeteries they will do turfing and grading in the city on short notice.

Cemetery lots for sale; also Loans and Turf.

Orders left at residence, corner of Richards avenue and South street, or by mail with Oliver A. Ham, 64 Market street, will be given prompt attention.

M. J. GRIFFIN & SON.

AUTO CHEMICAL CALLED TO NEWFIELDS

The auto chemical with the Flying Squad, were called to Newfields on Wednesday afternoon where a brush fire had got away from the local department and was threatening to sweep the town.

The fire is supposed to have started from a spark from a locomotive and fanned by the high wind it went from grass land into the brush land and it was soon sweeping over acres of ground.

In the path was the home of George W. Paul an aged resident of that town and this was destroyed along with a barn. The town's department with the aid of a lot of men from the surrounding places finally got the fire under control and the local people were not needed after their arrival.

The auto chemical made the trip over in twenty-four minutes, but did not remain there only a short time.

BRITISH OFFICER WRITES OF NORTH SEA BATTLE

London, March 11.—I have just come into possession of an interesting account of the North Sea Battle in which the Blücher was sunk, written by a British officer of the destroyer "Sandfly." He says:

I am afraid I can't say that the Sandfly took a leading part on Sunday. You see it was nearly entirely a big ship action and the destroyers hardly got a chance.

We had a heavy night on Saturday; you could not see a thing except at intervals and you had to look out as best you could. As the light got better we made out the enemy battle cruisers, making our way. I was wet through, having come up quickly without an oilskin, which I won't say again even though I am a bit late on the forecastle, also suffering a bit from seasickness. I suppose at a pinch one can fight well even though it's on an empty stomach and no sleep and wet through, but I am blown if you can if you are feeling seakick.

A bit later we made out some heavy ships on our port side (we were steaming north). These might have been Germans for all we knew in the Sandfly. The German ships came on for a bit but as soon as they caught sight of the Lion and that lot they altered course 180 degrees and made off towards the Patterland as quick as they could. We realized then that we should see some very pretty firing and something rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

All Gas Kitchen

Spring Cleaning Time Is Here

WHY NOT MODERNIZE YOUR KITCHEN AND COOK WITH GAS THE YEAR 'ROUND? LET US GIVE YOU AN ESTIMATE ON A MODERN EQUIPMENT.

Portsmouth Gas Co.

(Always at Your Service)

rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

About 9 a. m. our leading ships fired ranging shots from the fore turrets, but they fell short; about 9.30 it seemed that the enemy were within range, and at 9.45 the Tiger and Lion seemed to be firing their whole broadsides regularly, and about 10 a. m. the Lion, Tiger, New Zealand and Princess Royal were all in action. It was very hard to see much from where we were as our bridge was washing down, and one could not keep binoculars dry. As far as we could see our shots were straddling them all right, and theirs seemed to be all around our two leading ships, especially the Tiger. I can't say I was very impressed with the action, as it looked just the same as any squadron firing one has ever seen in peace time. I have no doubt it was quite exciting enough, though, in the B. C. S. or to anyone who had not seen ships engaged before. At 11.05 we sighted a Zepp. About the progress of the action and damage each side was doing we could tell very little, except that their shooting seemed jolly good.

At 11.10 we came up to the Lion, who had fallen out of the line and was listing a good deal to port. Otherwise she seemed perfectly all right. However, she was obviously out of action and it did not cheer me up at all as, for all we know, our other three ships might be getting the worst of it. Her first flotilla boats formed a screen round the Lion and after this we were out of the fighting altogether, and much to our annoyance we had to let the whole concern drift away to the eastward, splitting our flame and smoke at each other quite in the approved style. Our main care was now guarding the Lion from torpedo attack, and we steamed slowly north-west. The Admiral shifted his flag to the Achéron. At 2 p. m. the remainder of our ships appeared astern of us and overhauled us, and the Achéron as she passed signalled that the Blücher was sunk, which bucked us up. Later on the Indomitable took the rather out of the common, as for the first time during the war our latest superdreadnoughts were going to be pitted against theirs, and the numbers on either side were more or less equal.

Free Organ Recital

(Third in Series)

NORTH CHURCH, FRIDAY, 7.30 P. M.

Mr. Lyman Almy Perkins, Organist.

Mr. Leon Van Vliet, 'Celloist

Miss Borthwick, Soloist

LOCAL DASHES

Clean up, paint up, hire now. No session of police court today. Not very busy at the coal docks. Welcome to the visiting Grangers. March is behaving like a lamb so far.

Dr. Pickering, dentist, 31 Congress street.

Fish of all kinds at Clark's Branch, Tel. 155.

This weather certainly looks like an early spring.

The war is being brought pretty close to this country.

Don't forget to do your share of the clean-up and paint-up campaign.

The boy with the big glove has no time for home study just now.

Upholstering, hair mattresses renovated, Margeson Brothers, Phone 570.

A street cleaning machine could do a lot of work on Deer street just now.

Great Bay Smells Tongues and Cheeks at Clark's Branch, Tel. 133.

The light for Pumpkin Island should come as the next harbor improvement.

The busiest people in city hall at present are the tax assessors and clerks.

Which box number will be the first sounded on the new fire alarm whistle?

Someone was getting gay with the furniture in the Greenland-Exeter-Portsmouth deal.

The State Board of Trade has selected places for Spring, Summer and Fall meetings.

Lobsters and fish of all kinds caught by our own boats, fresh every day. B. Jameson and Sons, Tel. 245.

The spring millinery display in this city is certainly up to date according to the reports from the women.

Lawn mowers sharpened, scissors, knives and all edge tools sharpened; saws filed, umbrellas mended, keys made, locks repaired, and razors honed and rehandled, at Horner's, 32 Daniel street.

It is understood that Gov. Spaulding will stick to the candidates he has in mind for justices of police court and let the council cause the delay by holding up the same if the members wish.

P. A. C. MINSTRELS

Rehearsal for ends and chorus Friday evening, instead of Thursday this week.

IOWA BECOMES A CAMPAIGN STATE

Iowa became a full-fledged campaign state when the House recently adopted the resolution for the suffrage amendment 84 to 49. Now that the amendment has passed two successive Legislatures it will go to the voters in 1916. The victory comes as a climax to years of effort to get the question before the electorate. The amendment had previously passed the Senate this year 38 to 11. There was practically no debate. The work done by the woman suffrage workers had made the vote a certainty.

CONVENES IN THIS CITY

East Rockingham Pomona Grange Holds All Day Session Here.

About two hundred members from Rye, Newington, Greenland, Seabrook, Newton, Hampton, Stratham, Newfields, Newmarket, Belling, Kingston, Nottingham, Brentwood, Exeter, Hampton Falls North and South Hampton, and other towns arrived in this city this morning to attend the session of East Rockingham Pomona Grange held at Grange Hall, Freeman's Block arrived today.

This morning a closed session was held beginning shortly after 10 o'clock. The usual business was transacted, and the fifth degree was conferred in full on a large class of candidates.

Frank P. Fiske, Pomona Deputy of Milford was present for inspection and Benjamin B. Pray, Master, of Stratham, presided. At noon, dinner was served the Grangers by members of Strawberry Bank Grange, No. 251, of this city.

The afternoon session beginning at 1.45 o'clock was open to the public, and there was a large attendance.

The following was the program:

Piano solo—Mrs. Gertrude J. Young, Hampton.

Prayer—Rev. William P. Stanley.

Address of welcome—Hon. Edward H. Adams.

Response—Benjamin E. Pray, Master of East Rockingham Pomona Grange.

Discussion: "Resolved, that if Government funds are to be used to aid in building up an American marine, that it should be for ships to be owned and operated by the Government."

Opened by Dr. C. A. Heflinger, of Portsmouth.

Vocal solo—Miss Rosabel Curtis, Newmarket.

Paper: "Salt Lake City and Coming through the Rockies," with illustrations—Mrs. Sylvanus W. Posa of Rye.

Reading.

Essay—"Our Birds"—Miss Mary Fink, Newington.

Address—"Christian Liberty"—Rev. Frederick J. Libby, Exeter.

Vocal duet—"Voices of the Woods"—Mrs. Lizzie B. Seavey and Mrs. Nellie E. Seavey, Rye.

Mayor Harry B. Yeaton was to have delivered the address of welcome, but he was unexpectedly called out of town on business and so was unable to be present.

The discussion relative to government ownership of an American marine proved very interesting and some fine arguments were put up by both sides debating the question.

The dinner committee was comprised as follows: Mrs. John Wright, chairman; Mrs. Edward Patterson, Mrs. H. O. Hoyt, Mrs. Amos O. Benfield, Mrs. Belle Clough, Mrs. W. D. Inglis, Mrs. William Hunter, Mrs. James Pettigrew, Mrs. Frank Wood, Mrs. D. T. Sterling, Mrs. Edward Hoyt, Mrs. John Parker, Miss Ethel Vennard, and Messrs. John Wright, James Pettigrew and Edward Patterson.

The many friends of Mrs. Jeremiah J. Goodwin will be pleased to know that she gradually shows improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Edward Bartlett have returned to their home in Elliot after visiting relatives in Somerville, Mass.

Mrs. Roy Phinney entertained the South End Whist Club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on New Castle avenue.

Mr. Solomon Schumann, who underwent a serious surgical operation, is gradually improving at the Portsmouth hospital.

Mr. Ernest P. Billbrook, supervisor of music at the South Berwick and Elliot schools, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

George McPheters acted as referee in the basketball game between Tilton Seminary and Dean Academy on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. George W. Mulholland has accepted the position of head milliner at the Seekins millinery establishment on Market street.

Miss Hortense E. Spaulding of the High school teaching staff, who is at the Portsmouth hospital for treatment, is much improved.

John W. Hayes an inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Tilton, has been passing a few days in this city with his daughter, Mrs. Edward Hoyt of Vaughan street.

Mrs. Michael H. Hayes of Hanover street leaves on Friday for Saratoga, N. Y., where she will join her husband, who recently accepted a position in that city.

Miss Lizzie Tripp, Mrs. Clara Ridge, Mrs. Florence Crossley and Mrs. Millie Hobbs attended the Rockingham County Convention of the W. C. T. U. held at Seabrook on Wednesday.

An Oriental drama, showing life on the Great Sahara Desert, "Star of the Sea"—Rex, two reels.

This is a story which will appeal to all classes, because it is just natural. "Father's Three"—Victor, two reels.

"Helen Intervenes"—Thanbouser.

"Mrs. Cook's Cooking"—Beauty comedy.

The sixth episode of "The Master Key" will be shown on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Coming Friday and Saturday—Sixth episode of "The Master Key"; "Mutual Weekly," all the latest news of the day; "The Heart of Lincoln," a patriotic story in three reels; "Shorty's Adventures in the City," Broncho, two reels; "The Butcher's Bride," J. K. comedy.

SPECIAL: Owing to the many requests from our patrons, the management of the Scenic Theatre have reserved Tuesday evening for Glido Dancing only.

Next Week: "THE BLACK BOX"—Beginning Monday evening.

For Wednesday and Thursday "Exploits of Elaine"—Seventh episode. This installment is called "The Double Trap," the dramatic climax between the Clutching Hand, and Kennedy the detective, is the desperate struggle which takes place in a church steeple. Featuring Pearl White and Arnold Daly.

"Imar the Servitor"—Majestic, two reels.

An Oriental drama, showing life on the Great Sahara Desert, "Star of the Sea"—Rex, two reels.

This is a story which will appeal to all classes, because it is just natural. "Father's Three"—Victor, two reels.

"Helen Intervenes"—Thanbouser.

"Mrs. Cook's Cooking"—Beauty comedy.

The sixth episode of "The Master Key" will be shown on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Coming Friday and Saturday—Sixth episode of "The Master Key"; "Mutual Weekly," all the latest news of the day; "The Heart of Lincoln," a patriotic story in three reels; "Shorty's Adventures in the City," Broncho, two reels; "The Butcher's Bride," J. K. comedy.

SPECIAL: Owing to the many requests from our patrons, the management of the Scenic Theatre have reserved Tuesday evening for Glido Dancing only.

Next Week: "THE BLACK BOX"—Beginning Monday evening.

For Wednesday and Thursday "Exploits of Elaine"—Seventh episode. This installment is called "The Double Trap," the dramatic climax between the Clutching Hand, and Kennedy the detective, is the desperate struggle which takes place in a church steeple. Featuring Pearl White and Arnold Daly.

"Imar the Servitor"—Majestic, two reels.

An Oriental drama, showing life on the Great Sahara Desert, "Star of the Sea"—Rex, two reels.

This is a story which will appeal to all classes, because it is just natural. "Father's Three"—Victor, two reels.

"Helen Intervenes"—Thanbouser.

"Mrs. Cook's Cooking"—Beauty comedy.

The sixth episode of "The Master Key" will be shown on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Coming Friday and Saturday—Sixth episode of "The Master Key"; "Mutual Weekly," all the latest news of the day; "The Heart of Lincoln," a patriotic story in three reels; "Shorty's Adventures in the City," Broncho, two reels; "The Butcher's Bride," J. K. comedy.

SPECIAL: Owing to the many requests from our patrons, the management of the Scenic Theatre have reserved Tuesday evening for Glido Dancing only.

Next Week: "THE BLACK BOX"—Beginning Monday evening.

of Building No. 92, from 4.30 to 6 p. m. The navy band furnishes music for the occasion.

The Baseball Team

Providing that the members of the present marine guard at the barracks are not sent away on the Mexican trouble there are prospects of a fast baseball team here this summer. Among the men available for the team that could make good in the following positions are: Jack Rose pitcher; John Hayes, Catcher and captain; David Engle, first base; A. Miner, shortstop; Private Childs, second base; Private Barrett, third base. Many others are being considered and the manager will likely give them all a try out in the practice games soon to get under way. It may be possible that the marine team will enter the local Sunset League.

Another Watchman

The watchmen at the Daniel street ferry landing will work on 8 hour shifts beginning today. James Plaisted of Kittery, formerly of the yards and docks crew, is temporarily acting as the second man, alternating with Arthur Kilpatrick.

Takes Job As Engineer

Michael H. Hayes, fireman at the yard power plant, has resigned to accept a position as engineer at Saratoga, N. Y. He will be succeeded by Eugene Blaney of Kittery.

Changes on Ferry Boat

Under the arrangement of 8 hour shifts on the yard ferry, John Beasley will be added to the crew as fireman, and Christopher Rennie as deck hand. Clinton Tucker, signman, will fill the place of the second engineer.

New Schedule for Ferry

The new schedule of trips of the yard ferry No. 1018 went into effect today, also the working of two crews began on this date. The extra week day trips are the following:

Leave navy yard at 9.15 a. m.; 6.30, 7.20, 7.45, 8.10, 10.00, 10.30, 11.15 p. m.

Leave Portsmouth 12.00, 6.45, 7.20, 7.55, 9.30, 10.15, 11.00, 11.30 p. m.

Sundays and holidays: Leave navy yard 9.00, 10.00, 10.15 a. m. Leave Portsmouth, 9.30, 10.07, 12.05, a. m.

Leave navy yard, 12.15, 12.35, 1.30, 2.30, 3.30, 4.30, 5.30, 6.15 p. m.

Leave Portsmouth, 12.25, 12.45, 2.00, 3.03, 4.00, 5.00, 6.00, 6.30 p. m.

Holidays: Leave navy yard, 7.20, 7.45, 8.10, 10.00, 10.30, 11.15 p. m.

Leave Portsmouth, 7.30, 7.55, 9.30, 10.15, 11.00, 11.30 p. m.

Approves the Change

The department has approved of putting all laborers of the Industrial Department under one head since the reorganization. James McWilliams, foreman in the yards and docks under the new system of management is transferred to the Industrial Department as a store man, and will have supervision of all work of that nature.

SUPPER AND ENTERTAINMENT

Women's Home Missionary Society Met Wednesday Afternoon and Evening.

The Women's Home Missionary Society met in the vestry of the Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday afternoon and held their regular meeting, and studied their missionary magazines.

At 6.15 a supper was served which consisted of baked beans, brown bread, pickles, salads, rolls, cake, pie, tea and coffee. Miss Bertha Grant was the hostess and had a very efficient corps of helpers.

A large number turned out to supper and a good sum was realized. The program of the evening was in charge of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society as was also the supper.

The program was as follows:

Musical.

Devotional Exercises.

Scripture from the study.

Prayer Circle.

Reading—"We Must Have Schools"—Miss Marguerite Jenness.

Reading—"Miss Bivra's Easter Bonnet"—Miss Bertha Grant.

Questions from the Mystery Box.

Reading—"Glances from the Kindergarten"—Mrs. Inez McNeill.

Reading—"What the Mail Brought"—Mrs. Leslie Davis.

Mystery Box.

Reading—"Education for Girls"—Mrs. F. J. Scott.

There is a contest between the Women's Home and the Women's Foreign Missionary Societies, and the organization that gets the most new members wins. The contest will close in May.

ANNUAL MEETING HELD YESTERDAY

State Board of Trade Getting Busy.

Concord, N. H., March 10.—Hon. John N. Cole, ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives, was the principal speaker of the annual meeting of the State Board of Trade held at the State House today. The officers elected were:

George B. Cox, Concord, president; Henry H. Mellett, Concord, secretary; Ira F. Harris, Nashua, treasurer; Lester P. Thurber, Nashua, auditor.

A FINE SERMON.

Dover Clergyman Speaks to a Large Congregation.

The Church of the Immaculate Conception was crowded to the doors on Wednesday evening when Rev. Peter McDonough of Dover, delivered the Lenten sermon. His text was from the Gospel of St. John and the entire discourse of the visiting priest was very impressive.

Although Fr. McDonough is no stranger to the parishioners here, there is always a large attendance whenever he occupies the pulpit.

COMING

Scenic Theatre, High street, Monday and Tuesday, March 15 and 16, the first episode of the Greatest of all serials in Photo plays, "The Black Box," by E. Phillips Oppenheim, one of the world's foremost writers of fiction.

Superintendent of Schools James N. Pringle passed Wednesday and today in Augusta, Me.

The New Theatre

CHAS. W. HODGSON, Mgr.

WE PRESENT FOR

Wednesday and Thursday

Adela Farrington in

THE COUNTRY MOUSE

Delightful Political Comedy Drama in Four Parts.

THE FURNACE MAN

A Pleasing Comedy.

VAUDEVILLE

Thurs., Fri. and Sat.

LESTER AND MOORE

The Yankee Doodle Girl and Her Soldier Boy, introducing Mr. Lester's original dancing drills.

ALEX BRISSON

Novelty European. Equilibristic and Contortion Artist.

MATINEE DAILY—2.15

Admission 10c Children 5c

EVENINGS AT 7.00 AND 8.40

A few reserved at ten cents extra.

Entire change of Vaudeville on Thursday.

Business Block FOR SALE

Two Stores and Tenement Overhead
Price $1800

BUTLER & MARSHALL

Exclusive Agents

5 Market St.

FOR SALE BRICK HOUSE

NO. 3 STATE ST.

Eighteen rooms, steam heat, bath, gas and electric lights.

PRICE, $2700.

FRED GARDNER

Glebe Bldg.

Latest Hair Cut for Ladies

THE CASTLE CLIP IS MY SPECIALTY

Don't Be the Last! Bath 25c

Lockers To Let. GEORGE C. SHARRETT

63 PENHALLOW ST.

SPRING SUITS

We are now showing advance styles in Spring suits. All the smart models of Stein-Bloch and Kuppenheimer for the Spring and Summer seasons are shown in the colorings and patterns which Fashion has "passed upon" and announced as correct for stylish dressers. Young men will find in our display some extremely modish models made radically different from suits for older men.

Henry Peyser & Son

"Togs of the Period"

The HARDMAN PIANO

AND THE METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE

THERE are more than 50 Hardman Pianos in constant use at the Metropolitan Opera House. But there are over 70,000 Hardman Pianos in constant use in American homes. Is there one in yours?

A Hardman Piano Costs Only $450

Terms of payment arranged to suit the purchaser's convenience. Liberal allowance made for old pianos taken in exchange. Handsomely illustrated catalogue sent on request.

H. P. MONTGOMERY

Music and Art Store—The Best in Music and Art

Opp. P. O., Portsmouth, N. H.

BAY STATE

BAY STATE LIQUID PAINT

MANY COLORS AND VERY DURABLE

Pryor-Davis Co.,
36 Market Street

THAT

Sleepy Eye Flour

"Once Bought --Always Sought"

"STRICTLY GUARANTEED"

A Silver Spoon With Each Bag Free

At All Leading Grocers

H. A. Yeaton & Son

DISTRIBUTORS